EIGHT PERSONS ARE KILLED AND THIRTY INJURED IN WRECK

Pennsylvania Passenger Train of Five Coaches Jumps From Tracks and Plunges Into Canal Bridge—Fire Hampers Rescue Work—Number of Casualties Not Determined

SUNBURY, Pa., Jan. 31 (AP).—The Reading Company passenger train, the Williamsporter, jumped the track on a bridge approach near here at midnight and plunged into an abandoned canal bed, killing an undetermined number of persons. At least four cars of the fast express, bound for Philadelphia and New York from Williamsport, dropped from the bridge after tearing off one of the span's piers.

At Philadelphia, The Record said it spoke with Miss Bertha Klein, twenty-five, of Sunbury, by telephone, and she said rescue workers told her eight persons were killed.

One hospital estimated thirty injured were there. The extent of their injuries was not immediately determined.

Cause of the wreck was not immediately learned.

FIVE-COACH TRAIN

The accident occurred at Clement Station, just across the Susquehanna River from Sunbury. The train consisted of five cars, including two sleepers.

Some rescue workers said no estimate of the number of dead could be made until they had gone into these cars.

The work of getting to the cars was hampered by a fire that started on the ties of the bridge from which the train plunged.

The canal bed into which the train dropped is only a few feet from the Susquehanna River, and parallels that stream.

EXPECT END TO DISORDER

Formation of Neutral Cabinet Likely to Bring Peace In Egypt

CAIRO, Jan. 30 (CP-Havas).—An end of riots in Egypt with their attendant student strikes, was predicted tonight when a neutral Cabinet was formed by Ali Maher Pasha and an appeal for order issued by Nahas Pasha, powerful Nationalist leader.

No new outbreaks occurred after the police sprayed indelible ink on the student rioters. Scores more were in jail.

The new Cabinet was organized by Ali Maher Pasha, King Fuad's chief secretary, in an effort to meet British willingness to negotiate with a coalition Government for a new Anglo-Egyptian Treaty.

OPPOSES COALITION

Nahas Pasha, head of the Wafd Nationalist Party, refused steadily to try to form a coalition Government, saying the Wafds would win an absolute majority in a general election. However, he appealed today for public support of efforts to end the prolonged disorders which were precipitated when students of the University of Cairo went on strike.

King Faud named Nahas Pasha to head the delegation which will conduct negotiations with Great Britain for a new treaty.

SEEKS CO-OPERATION

Ali Maher Pasha's Cabinet will seek co-operation from the various parties, it is understood, without requiring their leaders to take responsibility.

An Egyptian group sent a petition today to the League of Nations, signed by 100,000 Egyptians, that Egypt be admitted to the League.

MAY EXTEND LIFE OF BATTLESHIPS

Japan Has Observers in Attendance At Four-Power Naval Conference in London

LONDON, Jan. 30 (CP).—The four-power naval conference today discussed various proposals for naval limitation, with Japanese representatives present as observers.

The United States delegation proposed the extension of the official life of battleships from the present twenty years to twenty-six years. Final decision has yet to be reached on this point.

France's representatives sought to have Geneva specified in any agreement as the meeting place for any future consultation of powers, but this proposal was dropped on the protest of the Americans.

FACE FIGHTING AND SACRIFICE

Hitler Reviews Three Years' Dictatorship—All Nazi in Hundred Years

BERLIN, Jan. 30 (AP).—Adolf Hitler, reviewing his three years of rule, told his people today "fighting and sacrifice remain before us."

His twenty-five-minute review of the Nazi programme was taken by sounding board to other thousands on the Unter Den Linden and by radio to homes throughout the nation.

"We can review the past proudly, but our goal is not yet reached," said Hitler, on the third anniversary of his Chancellorship. "Fighting and sacrifice remain before us."

REASON FOR OPPOSITION

Referring to the rearmament programme, which involved the breaking of the Versailles Treaty last Spring, Hitler said: "Whoever opposes us now does it, not because we are Nazis, but because we restored military independence to Germany."

Drawn up before Der Reichsfuehrer were 26,000 storm troops from throughout Germany. After his speech, he remained while the throng was fed from field kitchens.

TORCHLIGHT PARADE

Tonight the troopers, drawn here from throughout Germany, marched past the Chancellory in a torchlight parade, just as they did in the early morning of January 31, 1933.

The leader said the Nazi goal of unity and unanimity would be reached in 100 years. "In one year we won 1 per cent of the people to the Nazi cause," he said. "In two years 2 per cent. In 100 years we will have won 100 per cent."

Protection Is Sought for Baby Chicks

OTTAWA, Jan. 30 (CP).—Seeking tariff protection on baby chicks, a delegation representing the poultry industry throughout Canada interviewed members of the Dominion Government today.

Canadian hatcheries needed protection against the importation of baby chicks from the United States, the ministers were told. The hatchery men asked that either a value for duty be placed on chicks imported or that increased duties be imposed.

The ministers promised to take the recommendations under consideration.

Governor Orders State Police to Reopen Inquiries

Says Evidence Abundant of Participation of Others In Lindbergh Kidnapping—Cannot Accept Any Inference Less Than Complete—Police Must Report at Least Once a Week

TRENTON, N.J., Jan. 30 (AP).—Governor Harold G. Hoffman ordered the New Jersey State police today to reopen their investigation of the kidnapping and slaying of the Lindbergh baby.

The chief executive, who defied threats of impeachment two weeks ago after granting Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted murderer of the child, a thirty-day reprieve, which saved him from execution the night of January 17, told Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of the State Police, by letter, that Hauptmann's fate is "almost the least important feature of this case."

"We cannot accept any solution that, even by inference, is less than complete," he wrote, adding there is "abundant evidence that other persons participated in the crime."

In support of his belief, the governor attached to the letter a long statement setting forth what he

Appeals for Stabilization Of Currencies

PARIS, Jan. 30 (AP).—Stabilization of currencies of principal countries of the world, with subsequent re-establishment of international trade, was urged today by Jean Tannery, governor of the Bank of France, as a method to return "universal prosperity."

Trade restrictions, monetary instability and exchange regulations, he said in his annual report to stockholders, "only delay the return of prosperity."

Battle of Unionists May Cause Split in Federation of Labor

United Mine Workers Authorize Executive to Withdraw Should Circumstances Warrant —Strikes Threatened in New York

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP).—The United Mine Workers authorized their executive board today to withdraw the union from the American Federation of Labor whenever "circumstances warrant"—opening the way for a wide open split in the ranks of organized labor.

This bombshell in the bitter fight between industrial and craft unionists within the federation was exploded by the miners' convention after John L. Lewis, U.M.W. president, had asked the delegates what they wanted him to do about the A.F. of L. Executive Council's demand for abolition of his "committee for industrial organization."

The vote was unanimous.

Lewis reviewed the whole history of the scrap between that federation faction which believes industrial employees should be organized by craft and the group which says they should be organized by industry, as are the miners.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP).—Autographed letters of "Lawrence of Arabia" brought an average of more than $100 each at public auction today in the first extensive sale since the death of the noted Briton. At the same sale, a complete first edition of the privately-printed London edition of "The Seven Pillars of Wisdom" brought $1,550.

PROTEST COMES FROM MOSCOW

Made Formally by Soviet Government Against Invasion in Far East

MOSCOW, Jan. 30 (AP).—The Soviet Government delivered a formal protest tonight to Japanese Ambassador Ota against the alleged invasion of Soviet Far Eastern territory today by a force of Japanese and Manchukuan soldiers.

Reports given out here said the invaders, who numbered more than 100, were driven back into Manchukuo after sharp hand-to-hand fighting with Soviet frontier forces.

FORCED TO RETIRE

This account said two distinct efforts were made to establish a footing on the Soviet side of the border, but in each case the frontier guards, although outnumbered, forced the invaders to retire.

The fighting was said to have occurred in the Grodekovo region, the same area where 109 Manchukuan soldiers were reported to have been brought into Soviet territory on Wednesday after they allegedly rebelled and killed four Japanese officers.

The Japanese Ambassador, it was announced, was invited to call at the Foreign Office, and there was acquainted with the Soviet Government's attitude, which was described as one of "decided protest".

EIGHT COMMUNISTS JAILED IN GERMANY

ESSEN, Germany, Jan. 30 (CP-Havas).—The People's Tribunal tonight sentenced eight Communists—among them a woman—to from six to fifteen years in prison for "plotting against the safety of the nation."

Plan to Raise Age For School Leaving In Great Britain

LONDON, Jan. 30 (CP).—A new education bill issued today raises the minimum school-leaving age from fourteen to fifteen. The new ruling will not come into effect until September 1, 1939. Provision will be made that will permit some students to leave school at fourteen providing a local authority is satisfied the child can find beneficial and ample employment.

ASSESSMENT IS REDUCED

Esquimalt Council Receives 1936 Roll—Drop Equivalent to Four Mills

Assessment reductions amounting to $49,372 on land and $428,955 on improvements were announced at last night's meeting of the Esquimalt Council when the 1936 assessment roll was filed.

This means that the council will have to face the problem of maintaining its revenue on a lower taxable assesment basis, and will make the task of keeping the mill rate down to forty-one mills even more difficult.

The 1936 assesment on land totals $2,135,069, as compared with $2,134,756 in 1935. The exemptions total $942,290 this year, as compared with $892,705 in 1935. The net taxable assessment on land this year is $1,192,779, as against $1,242,051 in 1935.

On improvements, the assessment this year totals $9,792,390, as compared with $10,227,095 in 1935. The exemptions for 1936 amount to $8,212,900, as against $8,218,650 in 1935.

With improvements taxed at 50 per cent of their assessed value, the reductions in assessments on the present mill rate represents a little more than four mills.

BROKER STARTS DAMAGE ACTION

Says He Advised Distillers To Contribute to B.C. Conservatives' Fund

VANCOUVER, Jan. 30 (CP).—Albert C. Wright, Vancouver customs broker, advised R. J. Macdonald, of Macdonald & Muir, distillers of Leith, Scotland, to contribute to British Columbia Conservative campaign funds, Wright testified today during trial of a damage suit he has brought against Samuel L. Howe, former Provincial Treasurer.

Wright's action in Supreme Court of British Columbia claims unstated damages from Howe, who, he alleges, induced Macdonald & Muir to break an agreement appointing him their British Columbia agent for bulk whisky.

The hearing disclosed that Wright had made a settlement out of court with Macdonald & Muir for £1,500 and counsel for Howe contend that the present action is the same matter which had been settled with the company.

ADVISED CONTRIBUTION

Wright told the court that he advised the distillers, in 1932, to make a contribution to Conservative campaign funds. He said he suggested a £500 contribution, after Macdonald inquired why his firm was not getting a share of the bulk whisky business and added that he cautioned him not to make the contribution conditional on securing

Scores Get Notices of Dismissal

OTTAWA, Jan. 30 (CP).—Much perturbation developed on Parliament Hill tonight in consequence of reports that 127 employees of the House of Commons had received notices terminating their services.

Statements by many of the men that they had received such notices were quickly countered by Dr. Arthur Beauchesne, clerk of the House, to the effect that "nothing has been done, and nobody is going to be dismissed."

COLMAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM KNIFE

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 30 (AP).—Steve Clements, professional knife thrower, had perfect aim today but didn't figure on the rebound.

A knife hurled during a movie scene struck a post—as it was supposed to do—a few feet from Ronald Colman, then rebounded straight at Colman. The actor ducked, but the blade grazed his nose, scratching it. The company took an emergency lunch period to recover its nerves.

SARRAUT INVITES GERMANY TO RETURN TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

COLLECTIVE SECURITY SYSTEM ADVOCATED

(Copyright, 1936, by Havas News Agency)

PARIS, Jan. 30 (CP).—Premier Sarraut tonight extended an invitation to Germany to return to "the European community" and help restore peace to Europe through the League of Nations. He did so in his ministerial declaration committing the new Government of France to a regime of "conciliation and republican vigilance."

Parliament was expected to take a confidence vote tomorrow afternoon which will determine whether the Sarraut ministry stands or falls.

Strongly supporting the new Government is former Premier Herriot, former president of the Radical-Socialist party and now guiding force in its ranks.

FOR COLLECTIVE SECURITY

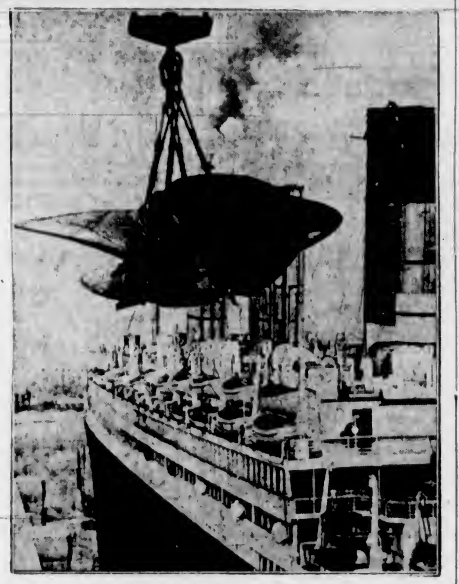

M. Herriot, who spoke after the declaration was read, warned France and its friends in Europe to stand by the collective security system of the League or prepare to see "the law of the jungle" prevailing on the Continent.

M. Herriot warmly defended the principles of embargoes in the Italo-Ethiopian-League conflict. He recalled France's consistent support of the Covenant, in which it maintained that "international morality must be sustained by international laws."

Premier Sarraut's declaration was framed with the new general elections in mind and the possibility of another change in the Government at that time. The Government

Meetings Result In Strengthening Peace of Europe

Improvement in International Problems Seen to Grow From Gathering of Rulers and Statesmen in London for King's Funeral

LONDON, Jan. 30 (AP).—A general bolstering of the shaky peace of Europe was seen in authoritative British quarters tonight as a result of the week's almost unprecedented assemblage of rulers and foreign ministers in London.

Italian tension, these sources said, was the sole exception to the general improvement in international problems reported growing out of the conferences between Europe's statesmen, gathered here for the funeral of King George V.

CHIEF CONCILIATOR

Britain's Foreign Secretary, Anthony Eden, taxed his energy and diplomatic persuasion to the limit to emerge as the chief conciliator, and the developments, informed observers believed, may have far-reaching effects.

Chief of these was an easing of Franco-German tenseness, accomplished by Eden, acting as a go-between for Pierre Etienne Flandin, the French Foreign Minister, and Baron Konstantin von Neurath, envoy of the Third Reich.

AVIATOR TAKEN OFF DIRECTION

Makes Forced Landing When Bit Too Breezy—Damages Light

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30 (AP).—James A. Mollison, noted British flyer, was fined $10 in Beverly Hills Justice Court today on a charge of intoxication.

When Mollison reached for the $10 he found his evening clothes did not contain the required sum.

"I'll tell you what, Your Lordship," Mollison drawled. "I'll teach you to fly for the two pounds."

Judge Cecil Holland declined and Mollison told the court

"Last night, when I consumed three or four, more or less, cocktails, it rather topped me. Not at all 'blotto,' you understand, but jingled, so to speak. I felt 'top hole,' but when a couple of your bobbies drove up alongside and suggested that I get in their bus, I gladly accepted their invitation.

OFF THE COURSE

"I told them I was on the way to the Trocadero (Hollywood night club) and thought they were going to take me there, but somehow they missed directions and wound up at the police station. Very rotten taste, you know, mistaking a police station for the Trocadero. Possibly I was a bit breezy, but it was all in good fun."

Now Considering State Medicine

REGINA, Jan. 30 (CP).—Premier Patterson, of Saskatchewan, announced today that a scheme of State medicine was under consideration. The plan is based upon assumption that the Government will establish central clinics for major operations and emergency cases. Legislation would enable groups of municipalities to form themselves into units. Already six municipalities north of Regina plan to initiate the scheme.

CLAIM ITALIANS ARE IN RETREAT

Graziani Said to Be Dropping Back Fearing Attack On Flank

ADDIS ABABA, Jan. 30 (AP).—Ethiopia claimed today that an Italian column was retreating in the south, where recent Fascist advances had caused concern here.

A report to the Government from Irga Alem said the column was dropping back from the Wadara area towards Negheli after a fight with the Ethiopians.

(Delayed dispatches from Dolo said yesterday that the Italians captured Wadara, fifty miles north of Negheli, in a dawn attack.)

The reported withdrawal was said to have been brought about by the fear of General Rudolfo Graziani, southern Italian commander, that Ethiopian forces advancing from the west would attack a rear Fascist flank.

One Italian airplane has been shot down, Ras Seyoum reported, and its three occupants killed in the crash.

MOVING TO ATTACK

(Copyright, 1936, by Havas News Agency)

ADDIS ABABA, Jan. 30.—Ras Nasibu's southern army is moving into position to attack the right flank forces of General Rudolfo Graziani in Ogaden Province, according to dispatches from the southeast Ethiopian war sector tonight.

Nasibu's men have left Jijiga and are moving southward, determined to engage in a pitched battle in the area between the Webbe Shibeli and Fafan River valleys, it was reported.

Il Duce Takes Steps To Strengthen Home Defences of Kingdom

Mussolini Informs Cabinet Men Sent to East Africa To Permit All Services to Function During Rainy Season

ROME, Jan. 30 (AP).—Benito Mussolini and his Cabinet forged a more iron-clad internal defence for Italy today, creating a new Alpine division for the Fascist kingdom's mountain frontier and revamping the high command of the Caribinieri, or national police.

Il Duce also told his ministers that 50,000 additional workmen, en route to East Africa, would permit all services in the Italo-Ethiopian war zone to function, even during the "big" rains which will begin in the Spring.

The Cabinet Council, first of a series of significant conferences this week and next, approved a variety of financial and other measures, some recalling Great War procedure.

But the ministers did not pass upon what all financial circles now are discussing: A projected capital levy consisting of a tax of 25 per cent on the value of all property, to be spread over ten or twenty years. Such a tax was levied by the Government of the late Giovanni Giolitti, one of the last of the anti-Fascist diehards, in 1920.

Making Headway With Repatriation of Jew In Ancient Palestine

Mme. Yettka Levy-Stein, of Berlin, Germany, Addresses Audience at Local Synagogue on Accomplishments of "Youth-Aliyah"

"OUR children do not want to be the last generation. They do not want to be only descendants. They want to be ancestors. They want to go on and work and live. There is only one place in the world where they can do this, only one place which offers them a homeland and a future, and that is Palestine," Mme. Yettka Levy-Stein, of Berlin, Germany, told an audience of 150 at the local Jewish Synagogue last night.

Madame Levy-Stein came here in the course of a Dominion-wide tour, as representative of the Jewish "Youth-Aliyah" movement, which has to do with the repatriation in Palestine of the Jewish youth of Germany, Poland, and other countries where they live under oppressed conditions. Very graphically she pictured the hopelessness of their future in Germany, where they are debarred from the public schools after the age of fourteen, and where all avenues of business and profession are closed to them. The "Youth-Aliyah" movement, in the organization of which she was instrumental at its inception two years ago, had already borne good results, and the Jewish boys and girls of Germany were looking forward with invigorated hope to the future, and the restoration of their race to the land of their forefathers.

"YOUTH-ALIYAH"

"Youth-Aliyah," which in its exact interpretation means emigration to a higher level, had already taken 1,000 Jewish children from Germany to Palestine. An additional 2,500 would shortly go forth, and, as funds permitted, more and more would follow.

Madame Levy-Stein described the system by which these children, between the ages of fifteen and seventeen, are taken into agricultural settlements in Palestine and there learn farming under competent instructors. Four hours daily are devoted to the practical part of the subject, and another four hours are given to the study of other subjects of general cultural value. The boys and girls entered Palestine under special Government auspices as farmer apprentices or pupils and did not come in under the ordinary quota, which referred only to the cities.

Three principles were considered in the selection of these youth in Germany—their health; their fitness, in the matter of character, and disposition for communal life with other young people of their own age; and a genuine desire for farming in Palestine.

Up to date there had been no difficulty in getting the right material. Every year in Germany 6,000 Jewish children of fourteen years of age leave school without the possibility of returning. Up to the present time the youth emigration movement has not had the necessary funds to take them all, but Palestine has room for them. There is an enormous power of absorption, as more and more of the arid lands are being reclaimed. Madame Levy-Stein explained that under modern methods of cultivation, as demonstrated by experts, the land is four times as productive as under the system used by the Arabs. This means that four families can live where one formerly subsisted. Experts had been brought in to find water, and irrigation and roads were being extended.

BEST OF ALL

Palestine was chosen above all other countries for the Jewish "Youth-Aliyah," after very careful examination of tracts offered in Russia, South Africa and elsewhere, as being the only land which could be made into a homeland for the Jews. And not only for the Zionists, but for all Jewry.

Speaking of the welcome given to Jews in this repatriation movement to Palestine, not only Madame Levy-Stein, but Rabbi Cass, of Vancouver, and Rabbi Marcus Berner, of Victoria, paid tribute to the sympathy shown by the British, with special reference to J. G. Macdonald, who was, in 1933, appointed by the League of Nations as high commissioner for the refugees. The meeting closed with a special prayer for the King.

At the meeting held subsequently in the vestry of the synagogue, Rabbi S. Cass, of Vancouver, was named chairman of the British Columbia committee of the "Youth-Aliyah," which will organize the provincial campaign for funds.

New Plane Said to Be Bullet Proof

The British Air Ministry is reported to have placed a large order with Vickers (Aviation) Limited, for the type of new super-warplane, pictured above, for the R.A.F. Much mystery surrounds the construction of this plane, mystery that is said to be enigmatic even to the experts, but the main feature of the ship has been announced as being almost perfectly proofed against bullets. The new plane, a monoplane, is known as the Wallis Geodetic, being named after its creator, Barnes Neville Wallis.

TRUSTEE JEUNE IS RE-ELECTED

Will Be 1936 Chairman of Saanich School Board—Committees Named

Trustee Walter P. Jeune was last night re-elected chairman of the Saanich School Board for his second successive term, at its inaugural meeting of the year last night. Standing committees of the board were named.

The following committees were appointed, with the first-named as chairman in each case: Finance, Trustee William Tomes and the whole board; works and grounds, Trustee Albert E. Hull and Trustees F. G. Aldous and Tomes; health, Trustee Nat Gray and Trustee Tomes, and athletics, Trustee Aldous and Trustees Gray and Hull.

The board decided to hold its meetings on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. Delegations will be met by the board at the first meeting only.

Prior to the business session, Frank V. Hobbs, former trustee, administered the oath to Trustees Jeune, Aldous and Hull. He congratulated them on their success at the polls and extended best wishes for a successful year.

Other business of the board included the passing of a resolution congratulating Robert Moss, youthful Saanich school pupil, on his splendid record in local aquatic circles.

A standing tribute to the memory of His Majesty King George V was made by the board.

EIGHT PERSONS ARE KILLED IN WRECK

Sunbury police said the locomotive and some of the coaches dropped into the canal, blocking a highway and tearing down telephone lines.

SAY FORTY INJURED

Police said about forty were injured and were taken to the Mary Packer Hospital. This was the hospital to which other sources said thirty had been taken. The hospital refused information, telling inquirers it was "too busy to talk now."

Sunbury is about fifty miles directly north of Harrisburg, the state capitol, and about 110 miles northwest of Philadelphia.

The first report to reach the company's main office, more than two hours after the wreck, said one passenger was killed and two were seriously hurt.

"The entire train, No. 14, was derailed and went over the bank into the abandoned canal bed," this report said.

All available fire equipment in the vicinity was rushed to the scene to aid in fighting the fire on the bridge. Efforts were made to prevent the threatened collapse of the structure onto the cars below.

The body of Washington Danshaw, of Tamaqua, fireman, was removed from the wreckage and taken to a Sunbury morgue. William Ramp, of Tamaqua, the engineer, was injured. The conductor, J. E. Jetters, Williamsport, escaped injury.

A number of those injured were students of Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, returning home for a vacation between semesters.

MEDICAL MAN'S ACTS REVIEWED

Court of Appeal Considers Conviction Against Dr. W. A. Watson

In the Court of Appeal yesterday, the case of Rex vs. Dr. Wallace A. Watson was under review, with J. R. Nicholson appearing as counsel for the appellant and A. D. Macfarlane, K.C., for the Crown. The appellant was sentenced to one year with hard labor when convicted of manslaughter before Mr. Justice Robertson at the assizes held in Quesnel.

The charge was one of not having used reasonable knowledge, skill and care in administering surgical or medical treatment to Joseph O. Tannhausser, of Pouce Coupe, and "thereby did kill and slay" Joseph O. Tannhausser. The alleged neglect was placed as between February 5 and 15, 1935.

Mr. Nicholson, in his address to the court, said that the trial really resolved itself into an inquiry as to whether Dr. Watson had been drinking rather than one of negligence.

The patient had come to the Red Cross Hospital at Pouce Coupe and, according to counsel, Dr. Watson had delayed decision upon an operation until he had the opportunity to diagnose the case more carefully. The patient had been suffering from time to time from what had been described as sciatica or lumbago.

PROPER DIAGNOSIS

An attempt was made to have Dr. O'Brien, of Grande Prairie, called in as he was a surgeon of repute, while Dr. Watson was a general practitioner of fifteen years' standing. He could not come, and then Dr. A. L. McRae was called in. According to counsel for the appellant, the only one who had really diagnosed the case properly was Dr. Watson.

Dr. McRae operated for appendicitis, while Dr. Watson was against the idea that this was the trouble. Finally, when the operation took place, an abscess was found to have been the source of the trouble, this being back of the muscles above the hip.

The evidence of the medical men called by the Crown and of Miss Ida Crook, the matron at the hospital, was all to the effect, Mr. Nicholson contended, that the course followed by Dr. Watson had been the most rational one. There was nothing to show that any delay to operate had cost Mr. Tannhausser his life. In addition to this, the patient had asked that no operation take place if it could be avoided at all.

QUESTIONING BY JURORS

During the hearing yesterday, allusion was made by the court to a practice that appeared to have been followed in which jurors had launched a series of questions to witnesses and on which Acting Chief Justice Martin expressed an opinion that he would be sorry to see such a practice allowed to be followed. He pointed out that there might be serious mistakes introduced if jurors were allowed to question witnesses except after the most careful consideration of the proposed questions by the trial judge. It would be a dangerous principl. to introduce, said His Lordship.

The case will be proceeded with this morning, counsel for the appellant still before the court.

Says Competition Hard on Public

TORONTO, Jan. 30 (CP).—Curtailment of motor truck competition with Canada's railways was urged today by F. A. Gaby, assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, at a luncheon meeting of the Canadian Progress Club. Unless the truck competition was cut down, Mr. Gaby said, the public would find itself increasingly out of pocket.

LOGGERS ADD TO PAYROLLS

Aggregate Wages of $11,000,000 Will Be Paid This Year in B.C. Camps

Marking a concrete step back to recovery, the logging industry of the province will put $100,000 more a month into wages and purchasing power than in 1935. After checking up the increase in wages generally enforced throughout the province this month, leaders of the industry said the 10,000 loggers of British Columbia would probably earn and spend $11,000,000 between January 1 and December 31 of this year, the largest single payroll west of the Rocky Mountains.

The operators' figures show also that, as a result of increases granted by the industry during the last two years, wages in many logging occupations, particularly those of unskilled labor, are higher now than in the predepression year of 1929.

WAGES ADVANCED

Wages in the industry advanced on the average of fifty-four cents a day in 1934, or a gross increase in the payroll of $850,500, though the industry was still suffering severely from depression. The increases granted in 1934 were continuous during 1935 and the employment roll rose steadily, until 10,000 men were employed for a period of 265 days. With larger crews working, the payroll grew by the further sum of $1,431,000, the operators estimate. The total additional wages paid to loggers for 1934 and 1935 were thus figured at $2,281,500.

The average increase granted at the first of this year was forty-two cents per day, though some camps raised their rate fifty cents and sixty cents. It is calculated that this increase added $4,200 a day to the logging payroll over the 1935 figure, or about $100,000 for a month of twenty-five days. Over the year, with the present crews, this will mean additional wages of $1,200,000, but increased employment may well add to that estimate.

Says Efficiency Is Not Impaired

In answer to inquiries made by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, directors were advised yesterday that the recent reorganization of the customs department in British Columbia did not impair the efficiency of the organization while amounting to a yearly saving of $10,000. The letter, after considerable discussion by the directors, was received and filed.

A motor car had just knocked down a man, fortunately without injuring him. The young woman driver faced him determinedly.

"I am sorry it happened," she said. "You should take more care when you are walking. I am an experienced driver. I have been driving a car for seven years."

"Well," replied the victim, "I'm not a novice myself. I've been walking for fifty-seven years."

SAYS BERRY INDUSTRY ENDANGERED THROUGH RECIPROCAL TREATY

Removal of tariff measures, in accordance with the recent Canada-United States reciprocal trade treaty, endangers the dried loganberry industry on Lower Vancouver Island, Captain E. Livesey told directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, speaking of a letter from the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association and indorsed by the South Saanich Farmers' Institute.

The letter carried a resolution requesting Federal authorities to provide adequate protection for dried loganberries, either by dump duties or other means, to enable the growers here to receive a reasonable return for their labor.

A committee of the chamber will consider the matter and confer with the growers.

ESQUIMALT HAS TWO SURPLUSES

Ends Year With Balance of $5,622—Sinking Fund Surplus Is $6,467

The auditor's statement for the year submitted to the Esquimalt Council last night showed that the municipality ended the year in a sound position, with a surplus on general account and a surplus in the sinking fund.

The credit balance on general account at the end of the year was $5,622.13, Ismay, Boiston & Holden reported. The sinking fund surplus was placed at $6,467.61.

Outstanding taxes and special rates amount to $31,677.19, which is a decrease of $7,591.64 compared with the figure for 1934.

Tax sale properties increased by $17,412, and the value of reverted land now possessed by the municipality amounts to $171,805.

BROKER STARTS DAMAGE ACTION

liquor orders as there was an election pending.

Wright said he thought that Howe was treasurer of the Conservative party at the time, but defence counsel said that was not true. Wright admitted he had never discussed campaign funds with the defendant.

REFUSED TO HANDLE IT

After a delay of several months, Wright testified, he was informed by W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the Liquor Control Board, that he would not handle Macdonald & Muir bulk whisky as he heard some consideration was passing to the Government on the purchase of the product and he refused to have anything to do with the transaction. He also told Wright, the latter alleged, that his principal's samples had been among six of the seventy which passed the test.

Wright was cross-examined in regard to cables to Macdonald & Muir. One from himself stated that he had been advised that R. J. Macdonald and Howe were liable to prosecution for indictable and extraditable offences and he offered to throw up his agency and take $5,000 in settlement. Another cable, from his solicitor, followed the first and advised the firm a settlement would save them unfavorable publicity.

This led to the settlement out of court.

Kennedy then took the stand for the defence and contradicted certain minor particulars of Wright's testimony. He said he did not remember the interview with the plaintiff. He also said 14,612 gallons of bulk whisky in their three crown varieties were sold during 1932, the year when the alleged cause of action arose.

Trial will resume tomorrow.

The chief of the village fire brigade was making his report to the chairman of the village council.

"Yes, sir," he said, proudly enough, "we put out the fire just ten minutes after we got there."

"Very praise worthy," said the chairman. "Had it got a good start of you?"

"I should say it had," said the fire chief. "When we got there, there was only the foundation standing."

PENSIONER OF SOVIET

Hero of Alaska "Mercy Flights" Looking for Transport Pilot's Berth

SEATTLE, Jan. 30 (AP).—Boyish "Bill" Lavery, hero of Alaska "mercy flights," arrived today, more anxious to talk about becoming a transport pilot than in recalling his airplane rescue deeds.

The youngster—he was born in Fairbanks twenty-two years ago next March 16 — blushed and hemmed and hawed when ship news reporters asked to see the Soviet medal he got for helping save the 102 refugees from the ice-crushed Russian ship Chelluskin in April, 1934, probably his most widely-known adventure.

Lavery has worked around airplanes at Fairbanks since his early teens. He was an assistant mechanic when he accompanied the Russian flyer, Maurice Slepnev, in the Chelluskin rescue flight from Teller to the Siberian ice floes off Cape Van Karem.

Lavery does not wear his Soviet medal, but he carries it with him always. He spent the $2,500 cash award the Russian Government gave him, but he still gets 30 gold rubles, more than $27 a month, as a life pension, and has a lifetime pass on Russian railroads.

WILL PRESS FOR MARINE BUILDING

Chamber of Commerce Asks for Early Construction of Federal Government Project

On the strong recommendation of C. J. McDowell, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce will urge the Federal Government to make an early start on the construction of the proposed marine building here.

After considerable discussion on the matter, the directors at a meeting yesterday, authorized W. T. Straith, president, and George I. Warren, secretary, to draft a letter to that effect and forward it to Ottawa.

In view of the Federal Government's reduction policy, already active in the East, Mr. McDowell declared it was time that the chamber pressed the matter. He said he feared it would be more difficult to handle at a later date.

Directors, in discussing the construction of the proposed building, referred to the employment it would provide.

He was obliged to take into account the fact that the man had served a term of imprisonment for a similar offence in 1992.—Evening Paper.

Counsel Have Sharp Divergence of View On Labor Legislation

Ontario Alone of Provinces Upholds Constitutionality of Dominion Legislation Now Being Put to Validity Test in Supreme Court

OTTAWA, Jan. 30 (C.P.).—J. W. de B. Farris, former Attorney-General for British Columbia, took sharp issue with Attorney-General Roebuck, of Ontario, before the Supreme Court today over the Dominion's right to pass labor laws.

The British Columbian disputed Mr. Roebuck's contention that the Dominion had power to pass legislation establishing minimum wages, the eight-hour day and weekly day of rest because they had reached national importance. They agreed, however, that the Dominion had no power to base the laws on obligations contracted through conventions of the International Labor organization at Geneva.

A VIOLENT BLOW

"It seems to me," Mr. Farris said, "it (Mr. Roebuck's contention) strikes a violent blow at the rights of the provinces in relation to property and civil rights."

He drew a word picture of Mr. Roebuck holding down a branch of the constitutional tree while N. W. Rowell, Dominion counsel in the present reference, cut it off with an axe.

Only in the event of a national emergency like war, pestilence or famine could the Dominion step into the legislative domain of the provinces under the "peace, order and good government" provisions of the British North America Act, Mr. Farris contended.

STANDING ALONE

Ontario was the only province to contend that the Dominion could use its "good government" provisions to pass the three statutes under review. Quebec, New Brunswick, Manitoba and Saskatchewan lined up with British Columbia in opposition. Each province, however, claimed that the laws were unconstitutional because they were based on treaty obligations.

The provinces completed their arguments today and Mr. Rowell started his closing arguments. The court was expected to reserve judgment about noon tomorrow and start on the next of the eight laws under review, the one establishing unemployment insurance.

UNQUALIFIED OPPOSITION

Counsel for Manitoba and Saskatchewan merely read into the record today their unqualified opposition to the constitutional bases for the three laws. Alberta was not represented today.

Referring to British Columbia, Mr. Farris said that province had better labor laws than the three proposed by the Dominion, and, if the latter were found valid, the Far Western province would suffer. If each province would exercise its constitutional powers and pass labor laws to the same extent as British Columbia, Canada would have a nation-wide code far superior to Dominion statutes, which must be rigid and narrow in scope because of international angles.

Sewer Frontage Tax to Be Kept —On Low Level

TAX relief, in the form of a reduction in sewer frontage instituted last year, will be continued this year by the Esquimalt Council.

LOCAL DOCTOR IS SECRETARY

Dr. M. W. Thomas Appointed To Important Post—Presentations Made

Members of the medical profession presented Dr. M. W. Thomas with a suitably engraved silver cigarette case when the doctors met at the noon clinical conference held yesterday in St. Joseph's Hospital lecture room, under the auspices of the consulting staff. The presentation was made on the occasion of Dr. Thomas' withdrawal from practice to take up the duties of organizing secretary to the British Columbia Medical Council, with offices in Vancouver.

Dr. E. C. Hart, probably the longest established practitioner in Victoria, made the presentation, and expressed on behalf of his colleagues the regret they felt at the departure of Dr. Thomas. Their appreciation for his long service also was voiced and best wishes were extended to him for every success in his new field of endeavor.

SECOND PRESENTATION

Officers of the 13th Field Ambulance also presented Dr. Thomas, their lititutenant-colonel, with a silver cigarette lighter. Major Hadley made the presentation on behalf of his fellow officers.

In his new position of organizing secretary, Dr. Thomas will undertake the task of consolidating the profession, and to represent it in all its public relations and in its contacts with other medical bodies, foreign as well at national.

Dr. Thomas has long been associated with the medical profession in this city, and is vice-president of the British Columbia Medical Association, past president of the Victoria Medical Society, past president of the Y.M.C.A. and commanding officer of the 13th Field Ambulance.

WELL QUALIFIED

In selecting Dr. Thomas for the post of organizing secretary, the profession feels it has chosen a man who is well qualified for the task, having in the past shown his ability as a leader and organizer when he served as chairman of the legislative committee of the British Columbia Medical Association, contacting members of the Provincial Cabinet and members of the Legislature.

Dr. Thomas will cover the entire provincial field, keeping in contact with all medical men, and, with the council of the association, will be associated with the committee on health insurance and other legislative matters affecting the profession.

Dr. Thomas was born in Ontario, came to Victoria as a child, was educated at the Boys' Central School and at the Victoria High School, under Dr. E. B. Paul. He was graduated in medicine from McGill, returned to Victoria in 1912 as house surgeon at the Jubilee Hospital, and in 1913 entered private practice, to which he has devoted himself for twenty-three years since, except for the time he spent overseas during the war. He left Victoria in July, 1916, as medical officer of the 103rd Battalion and returned from the battle lines in May, 1919.

IS CONSULTANT

Besides that of president, he has held every office in the Victoria Medical Society. He is local secretary of the Canadian Medical Association and member of the council. He is a member of the consulting staff of both the Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals and has been a member of the Jubilee Hospital board for three years. He has been a member of the executive of the British Columbia Medical Association for ten years.

For fourteen years he has been a director of the Y.M.C.A. and president for four years, during which time the mortgage on the institution was finally lifted. Since the war he has been an active member of the Canadian Club, a vice-president and has served on the executive.

Mrs. Thomas and their two sons, Glen and Philip, will remain in Victoria at the Howe Street home until midsummer, when they will also move to Vancouver.

It was announced that Dr. C. A. Watson would succeed Dr. Thomas here as local secretary of the Canadian Medical Association.

1936 OFFICERS NAMED BY CLUB

United Services Institution Of Vancouver Island Holds Annual Meeting

Brigadier-General John Gardiner Austin, C.B., C.M.G., was elected president of the United Services Institution of Vancouver Island at the annual meeting and dinner held last night in Spencer's dining-room. The vice-president is Lieut.-Commander H. R. Tingley, retired; secretary-treasurer, Col. H. T. Goodland, C.B., D.S.O., and the executive committee, Col. the Hon. F. G. Hood, Lieut.-Commander F. R. Gow, Major J. G. Rycroft, Major R. E. A. Diespecker and Major S. Henson.

The meeting adopted the report of the nominating committee without additions, and General Austin assumed the chair, taking over from Col. Eric Pepler, D.S.O., who was president for the 1935 term. Before the election of officers, Col. Pepler gave a brief outline of the activities of the club during his term of office, and the financial statement was read by Col. Goodland, which showed the institution in a healthy financial position at the close of the year.

GREETING TO KING

The annual meeting was preceded by a reunion of members and a dinner at 7 o'clock. The toast to King Edward VIII was musically honored, and the following cablegram was ordered sent to His Majesty's private secretary at Buckingham Palace: "The United Services Institution of Vancouver Island, assembled at its annual dinner at Victoria, the Empire's most Western outpost, desires to present its humble duty to His Majesty, and to assure him of its most loyal devotion."

Colonel Cy Peck, V.C., and Commander R. Bourke, V.C., were made honorary life members of the Institution. The club will make a cash donation to the Canadian Infantry Association to assist in entertaining delegates who will attend the convention here the end of February.

Following the business, Major F. V. Longstaff, F.R.C.S., gave a lantern lecture, "Naval Life at Esquimalt, 1848 to 1924." A large number of slides were shown of the ships of the early days and of modern times that entered the port of Esquimalt. A description of each slide was given by Captain J. A. Philipsen from the personal notes of Major Longstaff.

MINIMUM IN WAGES FIXED

Girls in Offices, Coast Taxi-Drivers and Skeena Loggers Concerned

In a group of fresh orders and variations of existing orders having the immediate effect of law, the British Columbia Industrial Relations Board yesterday applied regulations to female office workers of all grades, taxi-cab drivers in Vancouver and Victoria, and loggers in the Skeena River watershed.

It was announced that 5,000 women would be affected by the minimum office schedules, which includes stenographers, bookkeepers, typists, clerks, cashiers, checkers, invoicers, comptometer operators, auditors, doctors' attendants, dentists' attendants and women employed in all kinds of clerical work.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS

The minimum wage set for experienced office workers is $15 weekly, with 40 cents an hour for part-time work under thirty-seven and a half hours a week. Inexperienced workers and employees under eighteen are covered by schedules on a sliding scale, ranging from $11 weekly, up.

A minimum wage of $2.50 daily for taxi-cab drivers, and free uniforms, where uniforms are worn are provided for that business, confined to Vancouver and Greater Victoria areas.

Minimum wages for loggers in the Skeena basin, previously 40 cents an hour, were lowered to 30 cents an hour, by a variation of existing orders.

The orders were signed by Adam Bell, chairman, and Dr. W. A. Carrothers; C. J. McDowell, Mrs. F. Eaton and James Thomson, composing the board.

TAX PAYMENTS ARE MADE EASY

Collection of Arrears Shows Further Gain—Installment Plan Instituted

Despite the fact that a big increase was experienced in the collection of tax arrears last year over the receipts for 1934, this year's collections show a still further gain.

Up to January 29 a total of $13,223.20 was collected on account of tax arrears. This is a gain of approximately $2,000 over the same period of 1935.

George Okell, city assessor and collector, pointed out yesterday that every effort was being made by the department to encourage citizens to improve their position in respect to tax arrears.

Payments will be received on the easy payment plan, either by the month or week, or any other payment system that may be convenient for those in arrears.

To facilitate bookkeeping on such payments, the system has been changed so that property holders may make their payments to fit their own pocketbooks.

BOY SCOUTS TO HELP INDIGENTS

Will Collect Clothing, Shoes and Furniture for Distribution by City Department

The Victoria Boy Scouts' Association has volunteered to help the city's relief department in the collection of clothes, shoes, furniture and other necessities of life for distribution to the poor and needy in Victoria, E. G. Snowden, city relief officer, announced yesterday.

Mr. Snowden said that the city was badly in need of such articles with which to supplement the relief allowances now granted out of the city treasury.

A door-to-door canvass will be made by the Boy Scouts, and their assistance in this respect is greatly appreciated by civic officials.

OXFORD GROUP HOUSE PARTY FILM IS SHOWN

Glimpses of a new world order emerging through the mobilization of Christians in forty different countries were shown in the motion picture film of last Summer's Oxford Group house party at Oxford, presented Wednesday evening in Memorial Hall, at a public Oxford Group meeting.

Miss Marjorie Martin, of Leicester, England, a visitor in the city, and Mrs. Kenneth Meredith, of Sappho, Wash., who attended the house party, spoke at the conclusion of the film, describing some of the scenes and also telling of their own experience in Oxford Group work.

Arthur Averill, who presided over the meeting, pointed out in his brief concluding remarks, that it was futile to attempt to right the wrongs of the world unless one was right oneself.

CANADA'S GREAT PROBLEM

It is perhaps early to expect that the Federal Government will adopt some policy tending towards a solution of the railway problem. The members of the Liberal Party outlined nothing indicating this in their election campaign, but the problem is such a pressing one, it is so intimately bound up with returning prosperity and the measure of this that is to be enjoyed, that it can well be anticipated that something constructive will be done. The gross earnings of the two transcontinental railway companies dropped between 1929 and 1933 from $534,000,000 to $270,000,000. It may be pointed out, however, that the problem of recovery in the matter of railway finances would not be solved by a mere restoration of the 1929 revenues.

In 1928 the Canadian National Railways earned a surplus over expenditures of $44,449,780, a sum which it was possible to utilize for the payment of interest on the railway debt. That year was the highlight in railway prosperity, and yet even then the nationally-owned railway company failed to earn enough to pay interest on its bonds. Therefore a return to what were regarded as normal conditions will not solve Canada's greatest monetary problem. The Canadian National debt continues to increase. Only a partial solution of the problem lies in returning prosperity and increasing traffic receipts. The real solution is to be found in the institution of such drastic economies as will lift the burden of national ownership off the backs of the taxpayers. It is exceedingly doubtful if any method can be devised to bring about this economic result save by the unification of control of the two transcontinental railway companies. That development would bring about the elimination of duplicate services and unwarranted competition.

By unification the late Sir Henry Thornton estimated that a saving of $60,000,000 a year could be effected in operating expenses. That saving is placed at $75,000,000 annually by Sir Edward Beatty. Any Government which administers in the interests of the people has a mandate to solve the railway problem by the most direct and economical means. It is in the interest of the Government in all the ramifications of its financial policies that this should be done. Local prejudices and pride may be affected in the process, but the withers of the people as a whole will remain unwrung. There is no question at all that very substantial savings in railway operation can be carried out all over the country, and because such reform is necessary to the restoration of prosperity on sane lines, the policy that is essential to safeguarding the taxpayers should be adopted and an end put to the period of stand-patism which has marked the conduct of national ownership of a transportation system.

GERMAN REFUGEES

In his letter of resignation, addressed to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations, Mr. James G. McDonald, for several years Commissioner for Refugees (Jewish or others coming from Germany) gives a review of the refugee problem, and especially of conditions in Germany likely to cause a mass exodus of non-Aryans from that country. During the past three years, of 80,000 refugees, approximately three-fourths have already found new homes—more than half of these in Palestine—or have been repatriated to their countries of origin. Among these were 700 professors, scholars and scientists, including two Nobel Prize winners in science. This accomplishment has been primarily the work of the refugees themselves, according to Mr. McDonald, and of the philanthropic organizations, Jewish and Christian, whose devoted labors have been ceaselessly carried on in many parts of the world.

This stream of exiles will be largely augmented, according to this authority, by the increasingly-drastic attitude of the Nazist Government towards Jews and all others of non-Aryan extraction. Various laws, decrees, judicial decisions and party pronouncements and practices have been directed against all not of the German race. The culmination of these attacks was the new legislation announced in the Reichstag in extraordinary session in Nuremberg last September. Citizenship was withdrawn from persons of "non-German blood." Such a person is defined as one whose "paternal or maternal ancestors have Jewish or colored blood in their veins." By this action not only 435,000 Jews but also thousands of Christians who had changed their religion or had intermarried with Jews have lost their citizenship. Present or future refugees thus become stateless, persons "without a country," outside German jurisdiction or care, a situation that will result "in increased hardship for them and an additional burden to states which have admitted them while in possession of German nationality."

The retiring Commissioner finds that Jews and non-Aryans are excluded from all public offices, from the exercise of the liberal professions, and from any part in the intellectual life of Germany. Ostracized from social relations with Aryans, they are subjected to many kinds of humiliation. By means of boycotting exercised through industrial and commercial bodies, "it is being made increasingly difficult for Jews and non-Aryans to sustain life. Condemned to segregation within the four corners of the legal and social ghetto which has now closed upon them, they are increasingly prevented from earning their living. Indeed, more than half of the Jews remaining in Germany have already been deprived of their livelihood." There exists, it is affirmed, a condition of "utter anguish and despair that may burst the frontiers in fresh waves of refugees."

That the situation calls for collective action in regard to the problem is the opinion of Mr. McDonald. He states that "the growing sufferings of the persecuted minority in Germany and the menace of the growing exodus call for friendly but firm intercession with the German Government, by all pacific means, on the part of the League of Nations, of its member-states and other members of the Community of Nations. . . They must ask for a modification of policies which constitute a source of unrest and perplexity to the world, and a challenge to the conscience of mankind." This proposal should be considered in the light of the fact that the commission on refugees, though set up by the League, was not put under its authority, an action taken in order to avoid the veto of Germany, which was not then an active member of the League. This frustrated paternalism weakened the effectiveness of the commission's efforts, according to its executive official.

Germany's reaction to the proposal, according to the Berlin correspondent of The London Times, is one of resentment. The League and the League Powers are advised to look to the "beam in their own eye." The commentator states that "opinion in Germany is that the League of Nations should first concern itself with the way in which Germany accomplishes the internal building up of the nation after the material and social experience of its collapse." What action the League may take is undetermined. Meantime, on the philanthropic side, a Jewish mission headed by Sir Herbert Samuel has sailed for the United States, to confer with the leaders of the more than 4,000,000 Jews in that country on the emigration of Jewish people from Germany.

"GOD SAVE THE KING"

Fervently conceived as the patriotism of the last fortnight has been, by many of our citizens it has been faultily expressed. This has occurred in the inaccurate rendering of the National Anthem, in the singing of which "God save our King" has been substituted for "God save the King." Members of the choir at one of the major services on Tuesday and of the audience at the Drama Festival the following night were among those responsible. The altogether too common substitution of "our King" for "the King" is not only a departure from the standard version, but is literarily weaker. It will be noted that the author (and the authorship is uncertain), after expressing in the first two lines the bond uniting sovereign and people in the phrases "our gracious" and "our noble," lifts up the praying congregation to concentrate on beseeching the Divine blessing on their ruler in a burst of devotion, "God save the King." The same great altitude is reached in the concluding line of the hymn.

At the risk of seeming to unduly stress the importance of accuracy in this solemn invocation, and all the more because of the urgent desire for the new King's success, we give the first verse in full:

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King:
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

The verse that seeks the frustration of the "politics" and "knavish tricks" of the King's enemies is omitted in the Canadian version of the Book of Common Prayer as it is also in the Canadian Presbyterian Book of Praise and the Hymnary of the United Church of Canada. In no version is there such a line as "God save our King."

THOUGHTS FROM ELGAR'S GRAVE

If chance or choice should lead you where
This great musician's heart does lie,
With Malvern's lovely height nearby,
Take with you Reverence; and there
(Feeding on Nature's harmony,
Which sets the mind from body free)
You'll find of Peace a grain or two
Will slip within the soul of you:
As, rising from that humble mound,
His symphonies without a sound
Come throbbing through your heart—and lo!
His Spirit has not died—you know."
—Eva Mary Grew, in The Choir.

Few ever lived to a great age, and fewer still ever became distinguished, who were not in the habit of early rising.—Dr. John Todd.

Note and Comment

By R. S. D.

Philosophy triumphs easily over past evils and future evils, but present evils triumph over it.—La Rochefoucauld.

A little learning may be a dangerous thing, but sometimes we think a smattering of knowledge is a very convenient thing. Learned men are always worrying about something. For years and years learned physicists have been chasing the elusive atom. Some of those profound gentlemen claim to have collared the mysterious substance or fluid, or whatever it may be; and more than once the captors have declared they were going to split their captive. But the extraordinary thing about it all is that although the atom is such a tiny thing and never has been seen by mortal eye, that machinery weighing tons and tons is necessary to split it. The object of the physicists who want to split the atom is to release energy.

There is said to be so much energy concentrated in the tiny little atom that if released, collared and confined and applied mechanically, all the big wheels and little wheels in the world could be made to whirl like mad, and all other feeble forces, such as water, steam, and even electricity, would become obsolete and useless forces. Possibly there may be a slight exaggeration in all this, and if there be, it must be charged against our ignorance of the physical sciences. Anyhow, the pursuit of the atom continues. Some day it may be caught. If it were like a woman or a street car, if one is missed, there is always another coming along. But the woman and the street car are substantial physical entities, whereas the atom is an invisible thing and moves with lightning speed "its wonders to perform." There are ignorant scoffers who believe it as insubstantial as a vision of the night.

One of the characteristics of human beings is that those beings are always chasing something, too often something which is unobtainable, such as happiness. Everybody has read the philosophical truth or platitude that happiness is not a substance which can be caught, but merely a condition of the mind. The hind wheel might as well try to catch the front wheel as mortal being try to overtake fleeting happiness. The man at the steering wheel may think he sees fleeting visions of the witch as he drives his machine over the road at a breakneck pace. He may get somewhere if he has luck, but he will not find a condition of absolute bliss waiting for him at the end of the road.

But the pursuit of the unattainable will never end. The atom may actually have been caught, but if it has been caught, the learned physicists are now chasing something else even more insubstantial and elusive. They are after the cosmic ray, and they will not be happy, we suppose, until they catch it. Like the atom, the cosmic ray permeates everything. It may even be the thing of which everything else is made—fish, flesh and good red herring. One very profound authority says motion is the basis of all things, animate and inanimate.

The cosmic ray is said to be the very essence of motion. It cannot be run down. When one unit of it passes by there must be multitudes of others coming along, but human hands cannot be laid upon any one of them. If you want one, you must trap it in its flight as some of us have trapped rabbits in the days before so many societies for the protection of animals had cropped up. We believe some zealous searchers, or researchers, have gone up in the air in the hope of trapping the cosmic ray in its den and bringing it down for scientific dissection and examination of its component parts.

You know, if you read this paper as you ought to do, that the atom has been dissected (although never seen), and has been found to be made up of many parts, beginning with the electron, and continuing with the other irons until finally you find a neutron. Some of the forces of which the atom is said to be composed are positive, others negative. If there is anything in a name, the force called the neutron may be neither one thing nor the other, but neutral. The fact which makes us feel somewhat sceptical about all those mysterious things or forces is that the poor little atom seems likely to be supplanted before it has begun its work of revolutionizing all the industries of the world. It has to give place to the cosmic ray as the industries of the world as at present conducted must give way to the superior methods of the technocrats. Was it not Howard Scott who told us a few weeks ago, and many of us believed what he said, that under the applied science of technocracy wheat could be grown and brought to maturity within a period of about ten days in such quantities and in such limited space that ordinary farming would become a lost avocation and all the transportation systems of this continent and of the world would be put permanently out of business. Some of the learned professors in the universities have been saying the same thing. They have been saying that everything necessary to sustain the life of man will some day be produced in laboratories by synthetic processes. Now, don't sit down among the scornful and scoff at the predictions of the imaginative prophets.

A Lone Wolf

He walks the streets alone, save for his own gaunt shadow. Even that company is strained. The shadow slips away at nightfall, grateful for a rest. No children's hands cling round his neck. No dog bays welcome, nor fawns in glee at his approach. A petty tyrant where his word is law, a cringing tool where other levers press, he walks alone. A world is passing in the street, a world of human joys and sorrows shared among mankind. He lets it pass. Dragging his unwilling shadow, which one day will be free, he walks the streets alone—a lone grey wolf.—S.G.

Leaping Cod Fish!

We read this choice typographical error in a New York newspaper: "Statistics show that at the beginning of 1925 there were approximately 5,000,000 cars in use that were built in 1927 or before" . . . According to a recent survey in the United States, ninety per cent of all automobile accidents occur at less than fifty miles per hour, and fifty per cent of all accidents take place after dark . . . Bob, the printer, tells us there is a broom tree in full Bloom near the corner of Battery Street and Dallas Road. But it is still a little too early to think of Spring . . . We noticed an elderly man on Wednesday wearing heavy golf sox with silk ankle sox over them. Trousers and ankle-length underwear would be far warmer . . . An army quartermaster, who lives in Saanich, dropped into a restaurant recently and found the only vacant table surmounted by a large parcel done up in brown paper. His curiosity getting the better of him, he gingerly touched it with a finger. The parcel leaped into the air and bounded to the floor where it executed a series of gyrations. Accompanied by the proprietor of the restaurant, the quartermaster chased the parcel all over the premises until it was cornered under a table. When opened it was found to contain a live cod fish.—G.B.

Simply a Suggestion

Have often wondered why Victoria street cars are not equipped with windshield wipers for the front vestibule windows. During the rainy season operators of cars must find it an additional strain on the eyes to peer through windows almost continually spotted with rain. Had the cost of installing wipers been excessive we might not have mentioned the matter, but eyesight is precious and the safety of passengers is important.—R.A.G.

THE SWANS

One morn I watched some stately swans
A-swimming in the sunlit lake,
With tails, as sails, like snow-white fans,
Spread out the gentle breeze to take.

They looked like ancient painted craft,
With lofty prows to catch the view;
And built with needed shallow draught
To reach where they were sailing to.

For long they kept their measured rank,
As here and there they made their way,
Till one by one they made the bank
To preen their sails as swan-ships may.

(P.S.—This was written one morning while walking through Beacon Hill Park, Victoria. Seeing the beautiful swans sailing about as they sometimes do in such ordered array, I could not but pen the impression they made on me.)

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of January 31, 1886)

Fire Escapes—The bark Dovenby yesterday landed the new fire escape for the Victoria Fire Department. There was also landed from the same vessel one of W. Jensen's steel fire escapes for use in large buildings, and especially for hotels. Exhibitions will shortly be given of the practical value of both appliances.

Charity Concert—A number of ladies and gentlemen have arranged to give an amateur entertainment at the Victoria Theatre on or about the evening of February 11. The proceeds will be handed to Mayor Fell to be applied to the benefit of the B.C. Benevolent Society, a most deserving organization. The programme will comprise music and tableaux. A preliminary meeting will probably be held on Tuesday.

Fraser River Sandheads—It is reported that the buoys at the sandheads of the Fraser are altogether out of position, and are very confusing to navigators in both north and south channels. Should a fog occur, it would be impossible to bring a steamer to New Westminster without running considerable risk.

Amateur Dramatics—The amateur dramatic company of H.M.S. Triumph will give an entertainment in aid of the Royal Hospital at the Victoria Theatre next Tuesday evening.

LIBRARY POLLS BEING CHECKED

Aggregate Vote in All Areas Numerically in Favor of Union Plan

Union library plebiscite returns were four-fifths complete at the Provincial Secretary's offices yesterday, with four centres to be heard from on Vancouver Island, five in West Kootenay and ten others in the Okanagan.

On Vancouver Island the official statement of polls has been returned in forty-two out of forty-six centres, including forty rural school districts, and two municipalities. Three municipalities and one school district have yet to report.

VOTING REPORTED

Of Island areas accounted for, forty-two plebiscites returned 1,348 in favor to 579 against creation of a union library district.

Among West Kootenay areas, forty plebiscites gave 995 in favor, and 287 against the scheme, there with five centres to be heard from yet.

In the Okanagan, fifty-two centres polled an aggregate of 2,044 in favor and 722 against the suggested library service, with ten plebiscites unreported.

DRAMA FESTIVAL

Sir,—Please accept my thanks and that of the committee for the excellent publicity that you have given to the Vancouver Island sub-regional contest of the Dominion Drama Festival. It is to be regretted that neither the governing bodies of the Province or of the City of Victoria take the same interest in this contest as that shown by the press and by the general public. Again, many thanks.

A Governor of the Dominion Drama Festival.

SOCIAL CREDIT

Sir,—With further reference to my answer to Spencer Percival, with your kind permission I will endeavor to answer questions as put by that good citizen.

(3) What would I do with the C.P.R.

The most pertinent answer is what are you going to do with it? Are you going to confiscate it? That would be a good way to settle the debt problem in connection with it, but how can you do that? Are you going to nationalize it by buying it from the shareholders. If you are, it will cost you just as much as it does now, in fact more, because you will have to give interest bearing bonds for it, guaranteed by the Government, and when the depression comes, you will certainly pay "through the nose" for it while at present the stockholders in the C.P.R. are not receiving dividends and a vast part of the public debt against the road has been wiped out in the fall in the price of its common stock. Actually, there is very little water left in it.

There is, of course, the interest on the bonds, debentures, and preferred stock, and perhaps these are in excess of the actual value of the road, that is a matter of adjustment. If the adjustment does not take place, the road's structure or service will be out of line and business will go to competitive services, in which case the adjustment will be forced by circumstances.

Social Credit implies financial control over all monopolistic corporations, both as regards the issue of stock and the rate and price structures. Profits will be adequate for necessary replacements, improvements and expansions, plus purchasing-power for the stockholders. That part of the profits that is used for expansion will increase the national dividends of all the people. That part of the profits that goes to foreign stockholders will be a claim on Canadian produce payable in Canadian produce. Social Credit pays its debts in goods. There is no repudiation in Social Credit. If any other group wishes to repudiate its debts it will have to justify it itself.

How will we handle the C.P.R.? Why in the only honest way in which it can be handled, in the only practical way it can be handled.

And note this: At present all capital values are charged to the public, and after they are all repaid the public keeps on paying the national dividend to all the people, based on capital growth. There will be no more unpayable debt burden saddled on the people after Social Credit is adopted, and present debts, inherited from the folly of the past, will be adjusted and paid in goods, of which we have plenty.

Further, I shall be pleased to answer any and all questions sent to me through the mail, and will give them the best consideration from a Social Credit point of view.

RUDYARD KIPLING

Sir,—To all English-speaking peoples, his resting place, for the mortal remains—a niche in the Abbey; for the immortal spirit embalmed in his tales and his verse—a holy place in the heart of the common people, for he is the soldier's poet of a soldier people. To him, refusing all honors, comes in the end the greater honor.

• • • •

They who have the life transcendent put idealism in its only possible place—first; they keep materialism in its only proper and secondary place. Theirs is that "rose of joy" round which in "immortal hilarity" sing all the muses.

And so—They pass over: and all the trumpets sound for them on the other side."

Those who have it not may for a little time flourish and have a "name to live," yet is theirs but a half-life. Since, ultimately, they needs must come to the sure end of a materialism that is given primacy in man's soul, put on a pedestal and worshipped as a god: to that pit of night, that place of wrath and tears, of wailing and gnashing of teeth—the desolate dungeon of giant despair, in which is walled up whatever of personality may remain to the spiritually dead.

They may blame it on fate, underprivilege, bad luck, lack of opportunity, injustice of the gods. Yet shall they know the truth. It will be burnt into their inner consciousness that they themselves, by failing to captain their own souls, are become the pronouncers of their own condemnation—and that not so much by reason of misdeeds as because of a deed left undone. Having the ability, when their chance offered, they lacked the single-minded faith which, putting spur to the will, gives power to action.

Therefore, they fell short of the joy of entering through the strait gate. Because of that omission, resultant on a fatal inanition, they will have lost their very soul.

Before we can have expression, we must have the means and ways of expression. The main means are thought and action. Ideas and ideal deeds come first; then, following and embalming them, poetry, art, music. Life, love and sacrifice are the springs of, and therefore prior to and essential in, all epics, oratorios and other such magna opera. As no man is born without a natural father, neither is any great idea ever brought into being without a spiritual inspiration.

In its turn the genesis of that idea becomes the moving power behind man's greatest works, his noblest heroisms. We moderns give this force intellectual an ancient Greek name—"ideal"—well expressing its meaning, "the actual thing," the "perfect type," the "working model." But both that thought and that deed must be rounded by experiment, implemented and lived out to fruition, before the fitting climax arrives for their great expression. Take as examples such men as Horatio Nelson; such heroines as Edith Cavell. Their whole lives show us, as in a laboratory, their great ideals working out, till their cup of life brims over. "England expects every man will do his duty": "Patriotism is not enough, I must have no hatred or bitterness toward anyone." Nelson's "last orders," Cavell's ante-mortem aspiration, had been all through each life the keynote to that life's music, governing their every thought and deed to the height of a harmoniously beautiful finale. For these heroes, their ideals were "The sword of the spirit" hammered on the anvils of bitter experiences, daily made sharper in their hard schools of routine work, and finally, when the great test comes, giving them the power to victorious fulfillment and fitting expression of their souls' desire in a catastrophic but gloriously perfect triumph.

But the greatest, the ever-living proof and pattern of this principle is our religion: wherein we find that the essential recreative core of Christianity is the life, the acts, infinite in love, infinite in humility, of the Son of God.

Our Blessed Saviour's words are precious; but our grandest conception must be of Him as "the Word," of His power and grace (the Kingdom of God in us), that all-penetrating activity of the "Logos"—most holy living image of our Father, divine, yet human and vivifying all humanity, the life and light of the whole world, centred in Him, yet ever radiating from Him to all, give eternal and surpassingly beautiful expression to that Father's love.

And so the Word had breath: and wrought
With human hands the Creed of Creeds—
In loveliness of perfect deeds
More strong than all poetic thought.
—Frederick George Scott.

If we look thoughtfully at the life, and with discrimination at the whole work of this great author, it will surely appear that the lodestar under whose guidance Rudyard Kipling steered his way through the perilous traps and strenuous maelstroms of a long and arduous life was a purely spiritual conception. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit." To him that knows his Kipling well, that conception is clearly a live and growing thing, evolving in and through his whole period of active work, increasingly evident in the quality of that work as the years roll onward.

Before that inspiration he bows his soul, in perfect humility, in unGrudging submission.

The tumult and the shouting dies;
The Captains and the Kings depart:
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet!
Lest we forget - Lest we forget

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard,
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And, guarding, calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord!

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock, add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Charles A. Hensley Again Chosen Head Of Boy Scouts Here

Annual Reports Show All Sections of Work Enjoyed Great Progress in Greater Victoria Throughout the Last Twelve Months

CHARLES A. Hensley was re-elected president of the Victoria District Boy Scouts' Association, at the annual meeting, last night. Mr. Hensley has been active in the movement for many years.

Lieut.-General Sir Percy Lake was again chosen first vice-president, and Hew Paterson was elected second vice-president.

The duties of honorary treasurer again will be shouldered by Raymond Jones, and Warwick Rawson was re-elected honorary secretary. G. H. Stevens will again act as honorary auditor.

CHARLES A. HENSLEY

CHOOSE EXECUTIVE

Those named to the executive council were: F. J. Baker, E. G. Beaumont, Major J. B. Hardinge, Major H. B. Hunter, J. Y. Copeman, Freeman King, Mrs. A. Mainprize, Lorne Ogilvie, Charles W. Pangman, Mrs. Hew Paterson, Lieut.-Col. Eric Pepler, Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps, Guy M. Shaw, Major K. B. Spurgin, Mrs. K. C. Symons, Col. A. W. R. Wilby, Mrs. A. Woodcroft and Major Nation.

Boy Scout, Wolf Cub and Rover work in Victoria has progressed materially during the past year, and increased membership indicates even greater advance for 1936, according to the various reports read, last night.

Mr. Hensley reported an active year for the executive and thanked them for their efforts. He also extended thanks to all who had helped and supported the association with the Christmas toy shop, pantomime and Apple Day.

In presenting the financial statement, Mr. Jones stated there was a bank balance on hand.

SCOUTING SUCCESSFUL

Major James Wise, district commissioner, reported scouting in Victoria had been very successful. The total membership was 600, he stated.

He drew attention to the work of the toy shop under the direction of William Bardsley. Some 16,000 toys were collected, repaired and distributed, a gain of 5,000 over last year.

One new troop had been formed in September at St. Martin's-in-the-Field, and another was in the process of formation at Emmanuel Baptist Church, he stated. Four new Wolf Cub packs had been formed, St. Paul's Anglican Church in Esquimalt, Sidney, St. Luke's Anglican and North Quadra Troop.

SEED LEADERS

Major Wise declared there was a need for older men in the association to assume the duties of Rover Scouts and Scout leaders.

Increased activity in badge work was reported from the Wolf Cubs by John Slater, assistant Wolf Cub commissioner, in the absence of Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps, commissioner. With increased leadership, twenty-one packs are now functioning in the district. The Cubs ably assisted the Scouts in all endeavors during the year.

Although formed only a year ago, the Rover Scouts are doing good work as instructors, assistant Cub and Scout masters, Freeman King reported.

KEMPTON PARK, England, Jan. 30 (C.P.).—Lady Houston's Red Park today won the Cranford handicap steeplechase, 2 1-2 miles, 90 yards.

Reeve Lockley Announces Standing Groups of Council for Year

Standing committees for the year were appointed by Reeve Alexander Lockley at last night's meeting of the Esquimalt council, the first since the annual election.

Councillor Thomas Hadfield was appointed chairman of the finance committee. The other members are Councillors David A. Henry and Clarence L. Pullen.

Councillor Henry was named chairman of the fire and light committee, with the following as members: Councillors F. G. Eaton and Thomas Hadfield.

The public works committee is as follows: Councillor Albert Heald (chairman), Councillor Eaton and Councillor Henry.

Councillor Eaton, during the meeting, suggested that an industrial committee be appointed, but Reeve Lockley expressed the view that matters pertaining to the general welfare of the municipality were the responsibilities of all members of the council, who could help encourage industries by reporting to the reeve things that came to their notice.

BIG CONGREGATION ATTENDS FUNERAL

Final Tribute Paid to Late Mrs. W. J. Bowden, Pioneer Resident Of Victoria

Impressive tribute to the memory of Mrs. W. J. Bowden, pioneer resident of Victoria, who passed away on Saturday, was paid by a large congregation of sorrowing friends at funeral rites conducted here yesterday. Rev. W. R. Brown, pastor of Victoria West United Church, conducted the service, during which the hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," was sung.

The funeral ritual of Princess Patricia Lodge, Daughters of England, of which Mrs. Bowden was a charter member, was conducted by Mrs. E. Allen, president of the lodge, who was assisted by Mrs. W. Baker, chaplain; Mrs. R. McVie, vice-president, and Mrs. M. Porter, past-president.

The funeral chapel was filled to overflowing with many beautiful floral tributes, which bore tribute to the high esteem held for Mrs. Bowden by all who knew her.

ADDRESS TREATS OF POULTRY AND SHEEP

QUALICUM BEACH, Jan. 30.—Under the auspices of the Qualicum Beach District Farmers' Institute, J. R. Terry, poultry commissioner, gave a most interesting and instructive address on "Poultry in All Its Stages." The address was illustrated by excellent slides. In addition to the poultry pictures, a set of slides gave a realistic insight into the sheep industry—shearing the wool and how it was treated and finally being made into an overcoat. The young people present were pleased with some comic pictures, which ended the evening's enjoyment.

Largest Dam Rises at Grand Coulee

As work progresses on the Grand Coulee Dam in North Central Washington, the largest structure of its kind in the world takes shape, a mass of concrete which will rise to a height of 550 feet above a 500-foot-thick base, 2,300 feet long, over which a cataract of water twice the volume of Niagara Falls will flow to drive the generators to produce power. The lake which will be created by the dam will be 150 miles long and 400 feet deep when the power project is completed.

Prepayment of Taxes Maintains Lead Over 1935

PREPAYMENT of current taxes is still maintaining its lead over last year by $54,029, it was reported by the city comptroller's department yesterday. To date a total of $323,355.77 has been collected. This amount will earn $11,704.72 in interest for participants in the scheme. During the same period last year, the receipts totaled $269,326.94, and the interest $9,691.

PENSION MATTER TO BE SUPPORTED

Island Branches of Canadian Legion To Ask More Aid for Widows And Orphans

Vancouver Island delegates to the Canadian Legion Dominion convention at Vancouver on March 23 will pledge their support to a resolution urging the Government to continue assistance to widows and orphans of war veterans who pass away from causes other than those for which they received their pensions.

This was announced last evening following a meeting of Victoria District Council of the Canadian Legion, held in Britannia Branch clubrooms on View Street.

Assistance to delegates to the March convention from outside points was taken under advisement. Tentative plans for holding a drumhead service in Beacon Hill Park in July when the Canadian War Memorial at Vimy Ridge is unveiled were discussed.

A letter of sincere thanks to the Bishop-Coadjutor and Dean of Columbia for the memorial service at Christ Church Cathedral on Tuesday afternoon was ordered to be written by the secretary. An invitation to attend service at Metropolitan United Church with Britannia Branch next Sunday was accepted by the council.

MANY ENTRIES IN FOR HOBBY FAIR

Committee Plans to Make Annual Y.M.C.A. Event an Outstanding Attraction

Great interest is being shown in the annual Y.M.C.A. Hobby Fair, to be held at the institution on February 14 and 15. Already a large number of entries have been filed with Vivian Shoemaker, at the Y.M.C.A., and no entry fee is being charged for those who wish to exhibit their handiwork.

Following a meeting held yesterday afternoon, S. J. D. Clack, general chairman, announced that Warren W. Martin will endeavor to secure a national exhibit from representatives of many nations residing in Greater Victoria. Children of the Queen Alexandra Solarium are working upon a display of handicrafts taught them while on the road to recovery.

Ernest Eve is in charge of the section to be devoted to model airplanes and yachts, and has been in touch with the builders of many fine models. The Y.M.C.A. Camera Club will exhibit specimens of its photographic accomplishments during the past year. Home cooking and sewing exhibits are expected to outnumber those of last year's show.

Mr. Clack and his committee are planning a number of novelties in the way of entertainment. The general chairman is also working upon a section to be devoted to miniature gardens.

INCREASING FASTER THAN POPULATION

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30 (C.P.).—The number of patients being admitted to mental hospitals is increasing four or five times faster than the general population, Dr. D. E. Cameron, of the Provincial Mental Hospital, Brandon, said here today. Research was the only medium that would give the reason for the disease, he said.

Standing committees of the 1936 Saanich Council were appointed last night by Reeve William Crouch.

Reeve Crouch will act as chairman of the all-important municipal relief committee, assisted by the whole council.

Reeve Crouch expressed his wish for a co-operative year. He also welcomed Councillor John Watson, Ward One, and Councillor Leslie Passmore, Ward Seven, to the board. The reeve also paid tribute to the work of ex-Councillors Fred Borden and G. S. Eden, defeated at the polls by Councillors Watson and Passmore, respectively. "They were both good servants of Saanich," said the reeve.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

TO LOOK BLACK

To look "black," to give a person a "black" look is to exhibit displeasure, anger, dissatisfaction.

This curious metaphor has been in use for centuries among English speaking nations.

We have it not only in the sense indicated, but also with the significance of uncertainty or pessimism, as in the expression "the future is black." Occasionally the phrasing is modified, as in the line "the outlook is dark."

In these and other similar instances, the allusion is to the natural phenomenon of the appearance of black clouds heralding the oncoming of stormy weather.

Painful Piles

Can Be Quickly Relieved

If you think there is no way to relieve the misery of piles, it's because you don't know of HEM-ROID, an internal medicine, from a prescription written by Dr. Leonhardt, a Western physician.

The real cause of piles is on the inside—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel, with the tiny rectal veins full of stagnant, impure blood.

Dr. Leonhardt decided the way to relieve piles was internally, with a medicine which would ease the congestion of blood in the veins of the lower bowel and help to heal and restore the sore, tender spots. After many tests he wrote the prescription which has been so successful in giving quick relief from pile misery; it is now offered to you with our promise that you may have your money back if you are not completely satisfied after using one bottle.

No matter what kind of piles you have or how long you have had them, HEM-ROID must show you the quick, clean way to get rid of your pile misery or your money will be given back to you. MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores, or any other druggist can supply you with HEM-ROID and will back up this promise. (Advt.)

Saanich Revision Court Will Meet On February 10

The Saanich Court of Revision on the municipal assessment roll will convene at 10 a.m. Monday, February 10, the municipal council decided last night.

A statutory meeting of the court is fixed for Saturday, February 8. However, the court will meet that day and adjourn to Monday.

The whole council will constitute the court, with Reeve William Crouch as chairman.

"To get anything out of you," said the underpaid housewife, "is like trying to open an oyster with a street car ticket."

Remanded Day on Robbery Charge

VANCOUVER, Jan. 30 (C.P.).—Stuart C. Cameron, twenty-seven, appeared in police court today on a charge of robbery with violence and was remanded to tomorrow for trial.

He was captured by Constable Frank Washbrook on January 22, a few minutes after three men held up the Cecil Hotel beer parlor and escaped with $100 in cash.

TO TRANSMIT FACSIMILES

Radiomarine Corporation Will Provide Service on Regular Schedule Basis

Radio facsimile will reach out to ships at sea within the next few weeks to transmit weather maps, printed matter and pictures on a regular, scheduled basis. That advance was disclosed at the demonstration of receiving apparatus for the service at the second annual marine exhibition in New York City.

The achievement of a regular facsimile service to ships is a culmination of several years of development by the R.C.A. laboratories, including many experimental tests at sea.

The development of terminal apparatus has been completed, and equipment identical with that being shown at the marine exhibition will be placed on four chosen vessels as they make their next call at the port of New York. The ships are of American, German, Norwegian and Spanish registry, arrangements having been previously made by Charles J. Pannill, president of the Radiomarine Corporation of America.

This step toward the extension of the Radiomarine Corporation's service to vessels of other nations is natural, since the American company is first in the world in this field to have developed radio facsimile for marine service.

Short waves will be employed for transmission, as in the present commercial transoceanic service of picture transmissions.

ENDORSE MOVE FOR LOW RATES

Chamber of Commerce Directors Approve Cheaper Water for Golf Courses

Victoria Chamber of Commerce yesterday, at a meeting of the directors, endorsed a petition of the Victoria and the Uplands Golf Clubs, sent to the municipality of Oak Bay, for more favorable water rates. This action was taken following the report of a special committee under the chairmanship of R. H. B. Ker. The directors asked the committee to co-operate with the two clubs in further action.

The chamber was asked by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce to endorse a proposal for an all-weather highway from Jasper Park, through the Yellowhead Pass, to the Coast. The local chamber had already recommended the completion of the Big Bend Highway in British Columbia, as a unit of the Trans-Canada Highway, directors were reminded. The matter was laid over and W. T. Straith, president of the Chamber, and Charles H. French, president of the Victoria Automobile Club, were named a committee to consider the matter.

CUSTOMS DUTY

To fully consider the $100 customs duty exemption clause of the recent Canada - United States reciprocal trade treaty, the Chamber will name a committee to meet representatives of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau and the city merchants.

A communication was read from the Border Cities' Chamber of Commerce, Windsor, recommending, among other things, that Canadian tourists be permitted to bring United States merchandise to Canada once every six months. It further suggested that only persons over twenty-one years be permitted to do so and only after they had been in the United States seventy-two hours or more.

FORM JUNIOR UNIT

The Chamber endorsed a move to form a Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, on the recommendation of Leslie Osborne, president of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Osborne explained the resolution would be presented at the annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, in Toronto, February 4 to 6, inclusive. He also reported on the recent formation of the British Columbia Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Charmer, 1887-1935."

Refuse Permission—The Oak Bay Council last evening decided against granting permission for the erection of two poles in the Uplands to serve a new house being constructed. Eaton, to rearrange the seating in the Esquimalt Council Chamber so as to make the debates more audible to the public was defeated at last night's meeting of the Esquimalt council. Opponents contended that audibility could not be made any better than it was at present.

MAY CAUSE SPLIT IN FEDERATION OF LABOR

walkouts that may embrace more than 137,000 workers during the next few days.

If carried out, the strikes would affect three industries—dressmakers, fur workers, and building services employees.

Police headquarters made extensive arrangements to cope with any eventuality on the three fronts as the week-end "deadlines" approached.

Negotiations to settle the disputes between employers and employees went forward throughout the day, with little outward success. In the largest of the three impending struggles, that between 105,000 dressmakers and their employers, it looked like a finish fight over questions dealing with the jobber-contractor system.

IN MANY BUILDINGS

Preliminary walkouts already have been called by the building service union, and leaders were preparing to call more than 20,000 workers off their jobs in 1,200 buildings on Monday.

The fur workers, 12,000 strong by union estimate, advanced as their chief demands a thirty-hour week and a 25 per cent increase in the minimum wage scales.

ORDERS POLICE TO REOPEN INQUIRIES

called "incontrovertible proof" that others were involved.

He pointed to Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's own statement, made before a Bronx County grand jury and to Inspector Harry W. Walsh, of Jersey City, that he had seen another man, besides the "John" who collected the $50,000 ransom, at St. Raymond's Cemetery, the Bronx, on the night of April 2, 1932, when the money was paid.

He dealt at length also with Dr. John C. Condon's statements and to his recent magazine articles in which the elderly educator said he heard the voice of a second man at the other end of the telephone the night of March 11, 1932, when he first made telephonic communication with the kidnapper.

REPORTS ORDERED

The law enforcement agencies have no reason to regard the case as closed, he wrote, and followed this with orders to Schwarzkopf that the State Police report "at least once weekly" the progress of their investigation and that of co-ordinating agencies.

Attorney-General David T. Wilentz said he will confer with Schwarzkopf at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Other points in the investigation, held important by the governor and emphasized by him in his statement to Schwarzkopf were:

1. That Schwarzkopf himself at the time Violet Sharpe, maid in the Morrow home, committed suicide in June, 1932, released a statement saying, "He felt her death went a long way towards indicating a solution of the crime."

"SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE"

2. That it "seems impossible to believe" that the Lindbergh baby's thumbguard lay in the road of the Lindbergh estate for a month before it was found by Betty Gow, the baby's nurse, as she was walking with Mrs. Elsie Whateley, widow of the Lindbergh butler.

3. That John Hughes Curtis, Norfolk, Va., shipbuilder, was convicted, not of perpetrating a hoax on the Lindberghs, but of having had actual contact with a gang of kidnappers.

Weiler Home Is Now Apartments

WELL-KNOWN HOME OVERLOOKING PARK NOW CONTAINS HANDSOME SUITES

Hundreds of Victorians are familiar with the big house, part of the old Weiler estate, which overlooks Beacon Hill Park at 238 Douglas Street. This property has now been secured by S. Coxworth and converted by him into an apartment house containing four handsome suites, to be operated under the descriptive name of Beacon Court.

The alterations which have been carried out are a tribute to the ingenuity and planning skill of Mr. Coxworth, for the well-built residence has retained all the features of beauty and finish while undergoing changes, which make it one of the most completely up-to-date apartment houses in the city. The beautiful oak staircase has been removed en bloc and replaced in another position without a scratch or blemish on the handsome, French polished oak panelling. To the right and left of the main entrance are now the two ground floor suites of three rooms apiece, the hardwood floors renovated and the lovely oak panelling unmarred. Wherever it has been necessary to remove this it has been replaced in such a way as to leave no trace. Fireplaces in each suite augment the hot-water heating throughout the building. A fully electric kitchenette is to be found in every case, complete with range, Frigidaire, ample cupboard space, cunningly let into the walls; tiled sinks, garbage chute and every convenience. The bathrooms are tiled, with modernistic fixtures, tastefully finished in harmonizing shades. Upstairs both suites have the added advantage of two commodious balconies apiece, opening out on a view across the trim beauty of the park. Lighting fixtures throughout are modernistic and conveniently arranged. Ample hot water for domestic use is supplied by an auxiliary sawdust burner in the basement, working independently to the heating system.

Beacon Court is enviably situated as regards location, standing back in its own grounds, with the green glades of the park just across the street. An adjacent fold in the ground provides protection from the sweeping winds. On the grounds, which are trim and well-kept gardens, stands garage accommodation for four cars. ***

RESTORATION OF PAY ASKED

Saanich Staff Seeks Return Of Normal Salaries—Six Reasons Submitted

Complete restoration of salary cuts was asked by members of both inside and outside staffs of Saanich municipality in a petition submitted last night to the 1936 council. The request was forwarded to the finance committee without comment.

In seeking the wage restoration, the petitioners listed the following six reasons:

1. The splendid financial condition of the municipality.
2. As municipal taxpayers they had to bear the burden of municipal relief twice (the cuts were used partially for this emergency).
3. Saanich school teachers had, in 1935, been granted increments.
4. Dominion and Provincial Governments and many individual firms had restored cuts.
5. The Saanich salary scale was generally lower than municipalities surrounding Saanich.
6. The general impression that Saanich wages are higher than the average is incorrect and should be corrected.

In the past three years the council has clipped salaries from 15 to 20 per cent, according to amount.

It is expected a full report on the cost to Saanich will be submitted to the council at its next meeting.

R. CECIL HALL IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Well-Known Victoria Resident Passes Away in His Forty-Seventh Year

R. Cecil Hall, 906 Linden Avenue, a member of the firm of Richard Hall & Sons, passed away suddenly last night in his forty-seventh year. For the past three months he had been in failing health.

A son of Mrs. Hall and of the late Richard Hall, the deceased was born in England, and came to Victoria when a small child. He received his education here at the North Ward School and a private school, and then entered the employ of his father, continuing in the business until the time of his death.

During his youth, Mr. Hall took a prominent part in athletic activities, being identified with football, soccer and baseball organizations. He was a member of the old Victoria West championship football team and also played with the North Ward Baseball Club.

Mr. Hall was a member of Columbia Lodge, No. 1, I.O.O.F., and the Victoria and District Fire Insurance Agents' Association.

He is survived by his mother, one sister, Miss Kathleen Hall, and three brothers, N.B., R.T. and John Hall, all of this city.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ACCOUNTANT'S HEADACHES GONE —FEELS LIKE A MILLION NOW

A well-known accountant says he began to have headaches so often that he became alarmed. These headaches were accompanied by what he thought was indigestion. This gentleman says: "I finally decided my trouble came from a mild form of constipation. I had tried several so-called laxatives when a druggist told me about Eno's "Fruit Salt." I had read and been told about Eno a hundred times, but it simply hadn't occured to me that it might be what I needed. It didn't take me long to find out. I felt better almost at once. Within a week, I knew I had found the right treatment and I haven't had a headache now in a month."

Eno's "Fruit Salt" has brought relief to millions who suffered from stomach trouble and constipation. It is an alkaline which neutralizes the acids in food. Eno is a laxative which gently but effectively rids the intestines of clogging, poisonous waste and restores regularity, thus removing the cause of many major and minor ills. To be normal is to be well. Let Eno help you back to normal in the most pleasant, simple way imaginable. Be well. Be vital. Take Eno's "Fruit Salt" every day. There isn't an atom of harshness or harm in a carload. Handy size 50c. Household size 85c.

Ladies Arrange Concert In Aid of Sunshine Inn

Generous Supply of Foodstuffs Received From Audience Attending Schubert Club Programme And Entertainment Thoroughly Enjoyed

Cash donations and provisions served as admissions to a concert given by the Schubert Club last evening at the Shrine Hall, in aid of the Sunshine Inn, and a most generous supply of parcels covered the tables placed below the stage.

Mrs. A. J. Parmiter, president of the club, introduced Capt. Burges Gadsden, of the Sunshine Inn, at the commencement of the programme and he gave a short talk on the work being done to supply meals to the needy. A comparative list of figures was of interest, and as the work is carried on entirely by voluntary support, its record was of special appeal and interest.

Captain Gadsden thanked the club and the performers for arranging the programme.

CLUB CHORUSES

Club choruses, under the direction of Mr. Frederic King, conductor, included "Oh, Skylark, for Thy Wing" (Henry Smart); "Sweet and Low" (Platte); the spirited "Storm Song," by Cyril Jenkins, and "Song of the Shadows," by Armstrong Gibbs, repeated in response to enthusiastic applause. "Oh, Didn't It Rain" and "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen" (H. T. Burleigh arrangement) were popular negro spirituels, and the programme closed with the choruses, "Love the Pedlar" (Edward German) and "Lochinvar's Ride" (H. R. Shelley).

Carol Menzies, contralto, sang two delightful numbers, "Sombre Woods" (Lully) and "Rest Thee, Sad Heart" (Del Riego). Sheila Conway delighted the audience with three soprano solos, "Iris" (Wolf), "Clouds" (Shaw) and "Lullaby" (Cyril Scott). Dudley Wickett's numbers were "Serenade" (Schubert), "Marching Along" (Harrison), "The Garden Where the Praties Grow" (Irish melody), "I Love Life" (Zucca) and "Land of Hope and Glory," and the audience sang the choruses.

DRAMATIZED PLAY

Enid Cole brought into play her powers of dramatization and impersonation in two monologues, "Choosing Wallpaper" and "A Board of Managers' Meeting" (written by Ruth Draper). She also presented a dramatized play, "Horse of Another Color," written by Ellen O'Brien (Mrs. Lloyd Morgan), of Victoria. Miss Cole played the parts of both the husband and wife in the little play and each was equally convincing. A delightful poetic fragment, "Happiness," was given by Miss Cole as an encore.

Grace Allen Timp, L.R.S.M., played the accompaniments in her usual finished style.

Old Salt: Not much. I can tell you, the earth trembled more than I did!

Ice Cream Has Place on Winter Day Menu

BY JESSIE MARIE DeBOTH

Anywhere north of the Tropics, ice cream is an ideal dish to talk about and serve in the middle of Winter, because in this northern zone we are apt to forget about it in January and it's too delicious and healthful a Winter dish to forget that way. Besides, everyone likes it, and it will always solve your dessert problem.

There is almost no limit to the varieties of ice cream or its uses. Long ago it ceased to be merely a party dish for special or grand occasions. And the few standard, plain flavors have been added to and developed into the wildest possible range of interesting and colorful, as well as nutritious, forms. All of them can be made, too, right at home in your freezer or refrigerator, if not available elsewhere.

For those who may have had difficulty in obtaining a smooth ice cream when made in their mechanical refrigerator, here are some hints. Ice cream to be smooth, that is—free from crystals, must be frozen quickly, so set the control in coldest position and, as soon as the mixture is frozen, turn control back to normal. Equally important, all ingredients should be chilled thoroughly before combining them. If water is used in the recipe, beat the mixture when it has frozen to the point of being a stiff mush, as this will break up any crystals that may have formed. If cream is used, whip it no stiffer than the consistency of a boiled custard. And—try the following recipes:

BURNT ALMOND ICE CREAM

Three-quarter cup sugar, one quart thin cream, one-quarter teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla, one-half pound browned almonds, chopped. Method: Combine in order given and freeze in mechanical refrigerator.

APRICOT ICE CREAM

Three-quarter cup sugar, three-quarter cup water, one-quarter teaspoon salt, three egg whites, two cups whipping cream, one and one-half cups canned apricots. Method: Cook sugar and water until syrup spins a thread. Carefully pour over beaten egg whites to which salt has been added. Beat until cool. Beat cream and fold it into the meringue. Add cut apricots and freeze.

MARSHMALLOW BANANA ICE CREAM

One and one-half cups marshmallow creme, two tablespoons lemon juice, one-eighth teaspoon salt, one cup banana pulp, two cups whipped cream. Method: Measure marshmallow creme into bowl and slowly stir in the lemon juice. Add salt, banana and whipped cream. Turn into refrigerator tray to freeze to a stiff mush. Remove to a bowl and beat well, return to tray for final freezing.

CORNFLAKE ICE CREAM

One-half cup sugar, one tablespoon cornstarch, one cup milk, one egg yolk, two cups cream, two cups cornflakes, one teaspoon vanilla. Method: Mix sugar and cornstarch, stir in milk and cook until thickened. Add egg yolk and cook two minutes. Cool and chill. Stir in cream, cornflakes and vanilla. Freeze in mechanical refrigerator.

LEMON ICE CREAM

Rind and juice of three lemons and one orange, one can sweetened condensed milk, two cups water, two tablespoons cornstarch. Method: Grate the rinds very finely. Strain the juice into the milk and stir as it thickens. Add one cup water, and mix the cornstarch with the remaining water; add to lemon mixture and cook until thickened. Cool, add rinds, then turn into refrigerator tray and freeze.

FROZEN PEACH PUDDING

Two cups milk, three tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, one-third cup sugar, one-eighth teaspoon salt, one egg yolk, one-half cup peach pulp, one cup whipped cream, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Method: Scald milk in double boiler, add tapioca, sugar and salt; cook fifteen minutes. Add egg yolk and cook two minutes. Stir in peach pulp, then cool. Fold in cream and vanilla and freeze.

PINEAPPLE SHERBET

One-third cup sugar, one cup water, one tablespoon gelatine, one cup pineapple juice, one-half cup pineapple pulp, one-third cup lemon juice. Method: Bring sugar and water to a boil. Soak gelatine in a little pineapple juice and dissolve it in the hot syrup. Cool. Add balance of juice, pineapple pulp and lemon juice. Freeze, stirring once.

New Noteworthy Fashions

BY BETTY BROWNLEE

DECORATIVE prints now being shown give promise of a gay Spring along the avenues. The new designs are a tribute to the ingenuity of the textile designers and, after looking them over, your feeling of impatience to shed the old Winter coat and step out in colorful array becomes something of an obsession.

Some of the more interesting motifs include symbolic designs and, of course, flowers of every variety in the gayest of colors.

There are plenty of the more conventional prints, too, such as the one illustrated today, which makes up in color contrast for what it lacks in radical design. One of the new features of the Spring frocks is the combination of velvet with the colorful prints as illustrated in the flattering gilet in the sketch.

This print has a background of green, in a lovely soft shade bordering on chartreuse, with its design in brilliant red and black. The velvet gilet is black, as is the belt, and a gay red buckle completes the color picture. Nice details are to be found in the high neckline at front, the straight, tight-fitting sleeves and the unpressed pleats,

Ms. John Antle to Be Open to Public

The Columbia Coast Mission ship John Antle, which will arrive here this week-end, will lie up at the Canadian Pacific Railway Dock and will be open for inspection on Saturday and Sunday. In connection with the visit of the mission ship, members of the Anglican Young People's Association are making a special effort towards the support of this home missionary endeavor during the week-end and coming week.

This sea-going hospital ship aims to bring spiritual, medical and cultural help to the scattered residents of the coast line of British Columbia. Its operations embrace the Northern Mainland and Northern Vancouver Island areas, which comprise 20,000 square miles of sea and land. The mission operates two hospital ships, the Columbia and the John Antle, and one mission ship, the Rendezvous, in addition to hospitals at Alert Bay, Rock Bay and Pender Harbor, and seven missions and churches.

Poetry Is of More Value Than Money

Appreciation of beauty in even the humblest and most everyday things of life; a gift or love of poetry—these are greater than material riches, and are among the ameliorations which redeem the most unhappy lot, Mrs. Nellie McClung maintained in the characteristically humorous, wholesome and entertaining talk that she gave before the Reading Group at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday afternoon. The usual big audience was present, with Mrs. Edwin Tomlin in the chair.

The first part of Mrs. McClung's talk was a review and appraisement of Josephine Lawrence's "I Have Four Apples." Rated by one of the well-known critics as one of the best half dozen novels of last year, the book did not receive quite such high praise from the speaker, but was nevertheless pronounced well worth reading as "a slice of life." She described, chiefly in the author's words, the several characters in this perhaps typical-of-many families, with their sometimes cheap and tawdry, sometimes really commendable ambitions. But the moral drawn from the whole was that in general the story seemed to illustrate the lack of appreciation of beauty in the intimate little everyday things.

Mrs. McClung wondered if this were due to some lack of education. The title of the book was intended to be symbolic, the author having said of the family which she described that "they had never learned to add"—in other words, they had never learned to make a real evaluation of the many beautiful things that lay right at hand.

BOOKLET ABOUT VICTORIA

To illustrate her argument about the poetry in small things Mrs. McClung read from a number of contemporary poets, including Mrs. Ebbs-Canavan's "Wayfarers," a sonnet of Winnifred Lett, and the Welsh poet, W. H. Davis', "We Have No Time to Stand and Stare."

She also recommended her audience to read, if they had not already done so, the booklet about Victoria prepared by A. H. Sutherland, of Uplands, and some of the verses gathered in the Victoria Poetry Chapbook brought out here recently.

Before closing, the speaker urged young mothers to begin early to form a taste for poetry and reading in their children. This would enrich their lives and give them compensations when material success was out of reach.

Wife Preservers

If your uncooked cake is too thick, and you have no milk or cream on hand, used evaporated milk to thicken it to the right consistency. A few cans of evaporated milk on your shelves will be found useful in many ways.

Horse Show to Be Held Early During April

Arrangements are being made and rehearsals are under way for the Victoria Riding Academy's Spring Horse Show, which will be an interesting event during the first week of April.

A programme of sixteen events has been drawn up, and amongst the most spectacular of these will be a motorcycle race when, at forty-five miles an hour, the riders on their "bikes" will jump over horses. Then the scene will be reversed and the horses will jump the motorcycles.

Children's riding and jumping, a musical ride and spectacular solo riding and jumping will comprise the programme. The show will be given in aid of a charitable cause.

Miss Denbigh Is Winner of Amateur Hour

Miss Hope Denbigh was awarded first prize of $5 for her recitation of "Albert and the Lion" at the Beaux-Arts' amateur broadcast last night at the Crystal Garden. The award was made by popular vote, and as two entrants received the same number of ballots, a draw was held, Miss Denbigh being successful, with Messrs. Ian Phillips and B. Pangman second, appearing as the Temple Sisters. They sang "On the Good Ship Lollypop," and were dressed as Shirley Temple.

Mr. Maurice Humber was "Major Crow," and Mr. Gilbert Fraser was "Graham Cracker," the announcer. As a climax to the broadcast, a burlesque was given on "Boccaccio's Untold Tale." Those taking part were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Simmons, Miss Laura Dunsmuir and Miss Patricia McConnan. Others taking part were: Miss Honor Benson, dramatic solo; Miss Thelma Ackerman, tap dance; Miss Betty Petch, impersonations; Mr. Philip Heal, bass baritone solo, "Water Boy"; Misses Laura Catterall and Dorothy Freeman, tap dance; Dr. John Mercer and Mr. Grant Stewart, piano duet; Miss Constance Hobbs, recitation; Mr. Lea McMartin, comic song; Mr. Jack Barraclough, "Barnyard Melodies," in which he imitated the different animals; Misses Aileen Cullum, Orric Branfoot and Loraine Pendray, blues singers.

"The Bishop's Candlesticks," a one-act play, preceded the broadcast, and was effectively portrayed by Mr. Denis Humphreys as the bishop; Miss Pennock as the bishop's sister; Mr. Harry Eke, the convict, and Miss Betty Petch, the maid. The programme commenced with Mr. Clifford Moore singing and playing on his accordian, "Strawberry Roan" and "Sharpshooter's March."

Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed to the music of a popular orchestra. About 200 members and friends attended.

learned, had an important bearing on the Austrian situation and on the Balkans.

Little light was shed on these latter talks, except for an indication that restoration of the Hapsburg throne in Austria is not to be expected in the near future.

REPEATED TALKS

Observers were interested keenly in the repeated talks which Eden held with Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Commissar for Foreign Affairs. The British Foreign Secretary met Litvinoff for the third time this afternoon. The result was not stated, except for a denial that revision of the Anglo-Soviet trade pact is under discussion.

In view of Eden's discussions of the Locarno Treaty with both Von Neurath and Flandin, there was widespread speculation as to whether the Franco-Soviet military assistant pacts had entered the scope of the Eden-Litvinoff talks.

REAFFIRMS AGREEMENTS

First, Von Neurath saw Eden in a conference which resulted in the German's reaffirmation of the Locarno mutual security agreements between Britain, Germany, France, Belgium, Italy, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

This was taken to imply that Germany is planning no aggressive move in the demilitarized Rhineland.

In turn, Great Britain informed Von Neurath no bilateral arrangements had been considered with France which would not be available in the same form for Germany.

COMMITTEES OF COUNCIL NAMED

First Meeting of 1936 Oak Bay Board Held—Court Of Revision to Convene

The statutory meeting of the 1936 Oak Bay council was held last evening, when the newly-constituted board got down in real earnest to business for the year. All the members of the council were present, with Reeve R. R. Taylor presiding.

After Mr. Taylor had expressed his thanks for the honor bestowed upon him in his election as reeve, and after welcoming the new members of the council, a period of silence was observed as a token of respect to the memory of the late King.

THE COMMITTEES

Reeve Taylor named as members of the standing committees the following: Finance, Councillors Richard Angus (chairman), William Ellis and P. A. Gibbs; works, Councillors Ellis (chairman), J. V. Johnson and P. Vernon-Jackson; relief, Councillors Johnson and W. L. Woodhouse.

On motion of Councillor Angus, the entire council was named as a court of revision on assessments. This committee will begin its work at once. There are forty-five appeals and these will be the subject of review by the court at a meeting on Friday, February 7.

Councillor Angus was elected as acting-reeve during the absence at any time during the year of the reeve.

The entire council will also constitute the estimates committee for the year.

FINANCIAL SITUATION

In a review of the financial position in Oak Bay, which was presented by the treasurer, R. F. Blandy, to members of the 1936 council, the situation from all standpoints was thus described:

"Considering all current conditions, our financial position is being well maintained. Our budget is balanced, our tax collections are good, we owe nothing to our bankers, we have cash in hand and a surplus in our sinking funds, our debt is being reduced, our population is increasing, there is much building activity, and we rely less and less upon revenue from vacant land as the municipality fills up.

"But there are certain adverse factors which cannot be ignored. Our assessments are declining, our relief problem grows worse rather than better, our tax sales show much abandonment of vacant lots, we require many improvements for which taxpayers are in no mood to pay, our social service costs tend to mount with increasing population, our reserves are being used up, there is uncertainty about our sinking fund bonds owing to the vagaries of Provincial finance, and we are being subjected to increasing obligations through Provincial enactments."

George and Jim were discussing a mutual friend whose virtues of humility and self-effacement were hindering his prospects of advancement.

"He's just the sort of fellow who deserves a better post," observed George.

"That may be," observed Jim. "But a fellow can't rise high in these days unless he has plenty of bounce!"

LOSING AN ACE

The number of hands lost by sheer funk would compare, I am sure, to the number lost through technical errors. Curiously, this lack of courage usually manifests itself in the defence of hands, rather than in declarer's play. Frantic cashing of aces and kings, or conversely, holding on for dear life to an honor that were much better sacrificed in a good cause, are the marks of a player who is not only far from expert, but faint-hearted as well.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 ♥	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
2 ♥	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
5 ♣	Pass	6 ♠ (final bid)

West opened the diamond queen, dummy won with the king. The singleton spade was led to South's ace, and the heart led up to dummy.

West was somewhat "on the spot." The bidding told him that there was a decided chance of South holding only one heart, in which case failure to put up the ace would almost guarantee that it would "go to sleep." But, West figured, this was not the only consideration involved. If the ace were played, where was the setting trick coming from? It was obvious that East had a great many spades, including, probably, some high ones, and that the declarer would undertake to ruff out the spade suit. If the declarer's hand was a true two-suiter, with five trumps, the case appeared hopeless in any event. But there was a distinct possibility that the trump suit was only four long, and the play of the heart ace, setting up two good heart tricks undoubtedly would make declarer's line of play easier. So West ducked, and the heart king won the trick. Now the cross-ruff was started, but West's singleton proved its undoing. When South regained the lead by ruffing a heart, he naturally tried to cash his king of spades for a diamond discard in the dummy, but West ruffed. Dummy overruffed, but the situation was hopeless. East could not be prevented from discarding two spades while declarer ruffed the fourth and fifth heart, and overruffing declarer's last spade lead. And one of West's insignificant trumps accounted for the other, and setting trick.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Question: How many honor tricks must one have to make a jump bid in another suit in response to an opening diamond bid by partner?

Answer: A minimum of three and one-half honor tricks and either a strong rebiddable suit or an excellent "fit" with partner's bid.

RALLY PLANNED

A young people's rally will be held at the Douglas Street Baptist Church at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The young peoples' societies of Emmanuel First Baptist and Douglas Street Churches will take charge of the programme. All young people interested will be welcomed.

KNOX

The Knox Presbyterian Y.P.S. held its weekly meeting on Monday evening. The devotional period was conducted by Mr. Dick Creech and Mr. George Pears. During the business meeting, Mr. Dick Creech's resignation was regretfully accepted. During the evening, Mr. McRae gave an interesting and descriptive talk, "Frontier Days on the Mexican Border." All members are urged to be present next week, as the election of a new president will take place. A hearty invitation is extended to all young people to attend.

METROPOLITAN

Tom Wilson, group leader, has prepared a novel way of presenting the evening programme at Metropolitan Young People's Society on Monday. Worship, talk of the town, a one-act play, and many other items will be featured. Young people not associated anywhere else are most cordially invited to attend on Monday evening.

ESQUIMALT CATHOLIC

The Queen of Peace Young People's Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday. Plans were made for a dance which will take place in the church hall on Monday, February 3. Music will be supplied by a popular orchestra.

METROPOLITAN

Metropolitan young people met recently for "a night among the heather." The meeting opened with a sing-song of Scottish songs led by Jim McVie, with Dorothy McVie as pianist. Worship service was conducted by Tom Wilson and Edwin Cliff. A chapter from "A Cotters' Saturday Night" was read by Catherine Craig, and was portrayed by Rita Keeler, Florence Gillis, Audrey McPhie, Audrey Nixon, Colleen Keeler, Lloyd Valo and Donald Wheldon. Bert Simpson amused the group with Scottish jokes. Guests for the evening were Bobbie McVie, who gave two vocal solos, "The Wiggle Waggle of the Kilts" and "Stop Your Ticklin' Jock," and his accompanist, Dorothy McVie. The story of the life of Robert Burns was then told in an interesting account by Jim McVie. After group meetings, an hour was spent in recreation. The meeting closed with the singing of "Abide With Me." Competition is keen in the four groups to obtain the greatest numbers of points, Miss Doris Smith's group is in the lead. A good turnout is expected next Monday evening, when Tom Wilson's group will entertain with the theme, "The Dials Go 'Round and 'Round."

CITY'S CHARGE IS PROTESTED

Councillor Claims Esquimalt Meets Hospital Obligation —Is Helping Victoria

Objection was taken by Councillor Albert Heald at last night's meeting of the Esquimalt Council to action taken by the City Council recently in respect to hospital costs, when Mayor David Leeming declared that Saanich and Esquimalt were not paying their full share of their obligations.

Councillor Heald contended that Esquimalt was conforming with its legal obligations, and that instead of sponging on the city, was helping to carry a city burden.

He explained that when the city took the Esquimalt Waterworks Company property, it secured exemption from taxation on the watermains and other waterworks property in the Esquimalt municipality.

This meant a loss in revenue at that time to the municipality of approximately $3,000 a year. At the present tax rate, the loss in revenue was closer to $5,000 annually.

"I think the city should be made cognizant of these facts, and would ask that the municipal clerk prepare figures to clearly outline the position of the municipality," Councillor Heald said.

RELIGION HAS BIGGER APPEAL

Col. W. R. Dalziel, Salvation Army Secretary, on Tour Of Western Canada

More and more the people of Canada are turning to the Lord, and throughout the Dominion they have a greater desire for real truth, irrespective of how it is explained or under what denominational banner it is experienced, according to Colonel William R. Dalziel, Toronto, chief secretary of Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda and Alaska, who visited Victoria yesterday.

Colonel Dalziel addressed a meeting of the women of the Home League, shortly after his arrival yesterday afternoon from Vancouver. He was accompanied by his brother, Brigadier A. E. Dalziel, divisional commander for Southern British Columbia. In the evening he spoke to a large united meeting of the Victoria and the Esquimalt Corps in the Citadel. Colonel Dalziel will participate in the Young People's Councils' gathering in Vancouver on Sunday.

Having just completed a tour of the various corps, Salvation Army hospitals and other institutions of the organization in the Western provinces, the Canadian secretary stated he was highly pleased with the work being carried on.

"I am pleased to be here again," he remarked with a smile. "It is a long time since I saw a bit of green grass."

Turning again to the work of the Army, Colonel Dalziel stated: "We have a very fine force on Vancouver Island. We always think of them at headquarters."

Speaking of the national policy of the organization, the official explained the Army was doing its best to meet the daily problems and help the youth. Despite the severity of the economic depression, not one institution of any kind had been closed in the last four years, the secretary stated.

GREAT CAMPAIGN

The International "World for God" campaign, launched some months ago by General Evangeline Booth, had for its objective the "1,000,000 souls for Christ in 1936," he explained, and Canada's share was 50,000. This number, Colonel Dalziel admitted, was an ambitious one, but he was sure it could be attained. The Army does not expect to increase its membership by this total, but hopes to help 50,000 "souls" outside the church to return to their former churches with a new spiritual life.

How to make wonderful Waffles

1. Measure 2 cups Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour into mixing bowl. In another bowl beat 1 egg and combine with 2 cups milk or water. Pour liquid and 2 tablespoons melted butter or shortening into flour. Beat smooth. This makes six waffles.
2. Have waffle iron hot enough to bake a waffle perfectly in three minutes.
3. Grease iron lightly with paraffin after heating. Grease only once.
4. Serve waffles as soon as done. Never stack. Stacking spoils crispness.

NEW PLANNED MEAL SERVICE AT YOUR GROCER'S!

Anything you need for this marvelous low cost menu will be delivered by your grocer in one order. Complete with printed, easy directions.

WAFFLES are wonderfully light and well-done with Aunt Jemima's secret recipe. Far more fluffy than with ordinary bread or biscuit flour! For Aunt Jemima's contains only about half the gluten of ordinary flour. And gluten is the taffy-like substance in flour that resists heat and slows up the baking process.

That's why, with only about half the gluten of ordinary flour, Aunt Jemima's waffles come out so perfectly done, so tender, fluffy and light in the few short minutes waffles are on the fire.

Only 396 calories in an Aunt Jemima waffle, a square of butter and one ounce of syrup. Yet standard diets permit a total of 2,000 to 4,000 calories in the three daily meals.

Ask your grocer now to deliver any of the items you need for Aunt Jemima's Magic Menu. Watch the family go for this wonderful meal. Order now from any grocer.

SERVICING OF CARS STUDIED

National Motor Company Here Host to 200 Members of Garage Trade

National Motor Company, Limited, local Ford dealers, were host on Wednesday night to the garage trade of the Lower Island. Two hundred men filled the showroom to take part in the discussion of servicing the modern automobile.

The ideal of service upon which Henry Ford has built his vast organization—"It is our belief that purchase of an automobile does not complete the transaction between us and the buyer, but involves on our part a new obligation to see the car gives economical and satisfactory service"—was the keynote of the evening's programme of lectures and talking pictures.

REVIEW PROGRESS

With W. F. D. Pemberton, president of National Motor Company, in the chair, two Ford officials from Vancouver, Clarke Simpkins, district sales manager, and R. M. Gardner, service manager, reviewed the remarkable progress made in the industry through depression years—that today's cars seldom need the extensive overhauling of the past, but with their finer and more exact construction require preventative service attention of an inexpensive and highly skilled type to retain the performance built into the car. Mr. Gardner dwelt at some length on the correct adjustment of today's high speed ignition and carburetion systems.

TALKING PICTURES

Ford talking pictures—a highlight in the programme—depicted the story behind Henry Ford's promise to build "a million cars or better" in 1935. Pictures of the Dagenham, England, plant, largest automobile factory in the British Empire; Ford factories in France, Holland, Brazil and others of the forty-four foreign branches pictured vividly the world-wide international character of the Ford organization. Of particular interest were the actual manufacturing operations, the control of quality in raw materials and the finished product through continuous laboratory testing and research.

LONELY ISLAND SEEN IN FILMS

Miss Hilda Hesson Presents Word and Motion Pictures of Tristan d'Acunha

Word and moving pictures of the "most lonely spot in the world," the Island Tristan d'Acunha situated midway between South America and South Africa, in the South Atlantic Ocean, were presented to members of the Rotary Club at luncheon yesterday in the Empress Hotel by Miss Hilda Hesson, of the C.P.R. travel department, Winnipeg.

Miss Hesson pointed out that many persons had felt the urge to get away to a lonely spot. Such was William Glass, a Scot, who years before had been with the Scotch and Hottentot garrison stationed at the island to prevent Napoleon escaping from St. Helena, some 1,300 miles away.

Glass and his family were joined by sailors who were shipwrecked near the island which juts up from the sea, in volcanic formation. The island was formerly visited by sailing ships to secure fresh water, Miss Hesson said, but with recent years there was no communication with the outside world. Only warships or passing cruise vessels touched its lonely shores, she stated. Residents of the island—there are 178 persons there—were afraid of the outside world, and despite repeated attempts of the British Government to move the residents to civilized sections, they steadfastly refused.

Miss Hesson pictured the island in future as a refueling station for trans-Atlantic airplanes. The only village on the island was known as Edinburgh. Padres, who come to the island for three-year terms, serve as doctors, teachers, ministers and perform kindred duties.

Moving pictures of South African cities, Buenos Aires, Montevideo, Sao Paulo, Trinidad, Jamaica and Havana were shown.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR NATURAL "BULK"

Needed to Correct Constipation*

Most people recognize the seriousness of constipation. But too often they dose themselves with strong cathartics that often actually lead to chronic constipation.

The natural way to check common constipation is to correct the condition which causes it—usually, insufficient "bulk" in meals.

How can you get "bulk"? Fruits and vegetables have some. Bran has more. The most popular product of this kind is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

This delicious cereal is a wholesome food. Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity, with milk or cream—or use in cooking.

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily will usually correct constipation due to insufficient "bulk." If not relieved, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN gives you gentle internal exercise. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

What Today Means

"AQUARIUS"

If January 31 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., from 3:15 to 5:15 p.m. and from 8:15 to 10:15 a.m., from 6:15 to 8:15 p.m. and from 10:15 p.m. until midnight.

Simply because you are courageous, do not try to prove it by doing reckless, for the results might be disastrous. The application of common sense to any of this day's seeming problems are likely to be their only solution, so use it. A friend may ask you to do something he or she is reluctant to undertake. Unless you are vitally interested in its outcome, it will be unwise to let persons wish on you anything they are unwilling to do. On the other hand should anyone, out of clear sky, volunteer to do you a service, seek the motive that prompts the generosity, before accepting any unsolicited favor. Selfishness will cause many people to resort to strange forms of artifice this day, so as to gain some desired end, so be on the lookout for it. Business men will have to be circumspect in their dealings with strangers, if they wish to prevent any complications. This day will be a poor one to try to combine business with pleasure, so keep the two separated. If you are going to entertain or are the recipient of an invitation, arrange your time so there is no possibility of interfering with some of your responsibilities. Married and engaged couples, and those on the verge of becoming bethrothed must be carefull that no outside person influences them to do the wrong thing this day.

If a woman and January 31 is your birthday your fluency of speech requires your being careful of what you say, as well as when and where you say it. You ought to be gifted in many ways. It probably will be through your versatality that you will find yourself a success either socially or in a business way. As an educator, lecturer, demonstrator, illustrator or saleslady you should have little trouble in making plenty of money. Through marriage most of your difficulties are likely to fit a happy solution.

The child born on January 31 by the time it arrives at school age, is likely to be a lovable youngster. Life probably will have very few complications for it to face, and practically none it cannot overcome.

If a man and January 31 is your natal day, you have a tremendous amount of ability. A good deal of this may be latent. It will never be too late to make use of it, so if you have not yet reached the top, get busy, for by perseverance you can. Medical, legal, dental, mechanical, educational or selling lines of activity are probably among the most favorable for you to engage in.

Iowa Was Seaworthy Steamship Company's Official Tells Board

Columbia River Pilots, Testifying Regarding Bar Condition, State They Would Not Have Taken the Ship Out

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 30 (AP).—Captain Vance Trout, port-captain for the States Steamship Company, told a Federal Board of inquiry today that the steamship Iowa "was perfectly seaworthy" when, on January 11, she headed toward the Pacific Ocean which was to become her grave early the following day.

The Iowa was hurled on the sands of Peacock Spit in one of the Pacific Northwest's most violent storms in years. Its entire crew of thirty-four men was lost.

Today's testimony, concerning which no official opinion was offered, hinged around the condition of the wind and sea prior to the disaster and the seaworthiness of the lost vessel.

WIND WAS STRONG

Two bar pilots, Captain William Hall and Captain Robert Marquardt, said they would not have taken the Iowa out of the river at that time. Hall stated the south wind velocity at 7:30 p.m., several hours before the Iowa crossed out, was from forty to forty-five miles an hour when he piloted the motorship Koyei Maru across the bar.

The Iowa did not carry a bar pilot, the ship's captain, Edgar L. Yates, holding authorization for such work. It was brought out at the inquiry that none of the five ships lost off the Columbia River in the past twenty-five years carried a bar pilot.

Captain C. P. Rankin, bar pilot, who took the Iowa out on a previous sailing, December 24, 1935, said he advised the master to get up more steam at that time. He asserted under certain conditions it is not advisable to take a ship out to sea, and testified to the "northerly set" or current which develops after a gale has blown from the south.

APPARATUS EXAMINED

Captain Trout, in addition to testifying as to the condition of the ship, said the steering apparatus had been examined prior to the sailing, even though no trouble with it had been reported.

Captain Trout also testified as to the cargo and deckload, and declared "she had no noticeable list." The survey from Captain W. W. Jamieson, made at Longview, Wash., before sailing, showed everything to be perfectly shipshape before she left.

He said the ship carried no perishable cargo that might have required a quick voyage.

WHITE LINER DUE INBOUND

Empress of Japan Here Tomorrow—Heian Maru Arriving Sunday

First Empress liner to reach Victoria since December 30 from Orient ports, the Canadian Pacific Ss. Empress of Japan is due here tomorrow morning from the Philippines by way of China, Japan and Hawaii.

The big Pacific liner is bringing in 300 passengers in all classes a number of whom are from Honolulu, where they have been holidaying. The ship will land passengers, mails and cargo here before continuing to Vancouver. The latest word received from the incoming ship yesterday was to the effect that she would arrive at William Head about 6:30 a.m., which should put her alongside Rithet Piers about an hour later.

While it has been quiet at Ogden Point Piers for a day or two, King Brothers, local shipping agents, are expecting the freighter Hadleigh to load lumber today.

The shipping firm also expect the freighter Silverbelle in first thing tomorrow morning to take lumber cargo.

According to word received by Harry Douglas, local representative of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the motorship Heian Maru, of the company's North Pacific service, is due to reach William Head on Sunday night.

The Heian Maru will continue to Vancouver after obtaining pratique. For the Mainland port there are three tourist and thirty-one steerage passengers, and 1,290 tons of general cargo, including 276 packages of raw silk and silk goods.

Travelers for Seattle include eight cabin, six tourist and seven steerage.

TURNS DOWN ALL OFFERS

Cunard-White Star Refuses Compromise in Queen Mary Classification

LONDON, Jan. 30 (AP).—A special meeting of the North Atlantic Passenger Conference here adjourned tonight without reaching an agreement on the demand of the Cunard-White Star Line Company for cabin-liner rating for the Queen Mary.

The Cunard-White Star Line delegates were understood to have turned down all compromise offers in connection with the classification of the new super-liner, which goes into service this year.

Sir George McLaren Brown, European general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, is chairman of the conference, which will meet again tomorrow.

RATES FOR AIR MAIL SERVICE

Schedule Announced for Sending Postal Matter Across Pacific

Arrangements have now been completed, according to Postmaster G. H. Gardiner, for the dispatch of air mail correspondence from Canada, prepaid with Canadian postage stamps, via the United States for routing by the recently-inaugurated air mail service from San Francisco to Hawaii, Guam and the Philippine Islands.

The postage rates, including air mail fee, from Canada for such air mail correspondence, will be as follows: Per half ounce to Hawaii, 25 cents; to Guam, 50 cents; to the Philippines, 75 cents.

The above rates include, in addition to the Pacific air transit, air mail transmission where available in Canada, the United States and Hawaii, but not in Guam or the Philippines.

Such air mail should be endorsed "Air Mail" via San Francisco.

It is understood, Postmaster Gardiner added, that the service has been suspended for a short time, but will be resumed shortly.

UNREPORTED SCHOONER SOUGHT IN ATLANTIC

CAPE MAY, N.J., Jan. 30 (AP).—Coastguards searched grey seas today for the sixty-five-foot schooner Anna and Ella. Unreported since she left here, January 18, for Norfolk, Va., the craft is owned by Frank Wilkison, of New York, and was in command of Jack Rasmussen. She carried seven men in her crew.

UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE

Wasp in Diver's Helmet Made Things Difficult—Fish Are Curious

A veteran Swedish diver has been relating to a Stockholm newspaper, incidents of his thirty-five years of work under the waves. He proudly showed a diploma from the Pope and two medals received from King Victor Emmanuel for his share in work for the victims of the Messina earthquake.

Now sixty-five years of age, Carl Otto Bjorkegren has had a nodding acquaintance with fishes and other wonders of the deep of many latitudes. Fish, he declared, regard the diver's work with interest and become quite tame.

Sharks and octopus he considers not so dangerous as one would think. The shark, he says, swims away in fright when the electric torch is flashed at him. As for the octopus, all that is required is a little presence of mind and a well-directed attack on its head, whereupon it is easy to kill, and as it dies its tentacles lose their hold

WAS STUNG SEVERELY

The most unpleasant experience for a diver, he says, is for a wasp to get into the helmet. He tells of one diver, noted for his thinness, who had that experience. The wasp stung him severely before the unfortunate man could be drawn to the surface. For many a day the thin man was swollen to corpulence.

The salvage ship to which Bjorkegren belonged was at Messina at the time of the great earthquake in 1908. It escaped the tremendous tidal wave as by a miracle, and its crew did valuable service in helping others not so fortunate, all except the ship's first officer, whose wedding night it was and who was ashore with his bride. Both first officer and bride were found dead.

SAVED MANY LIVES

Another of Bjorkegren's treasures is a newspaper clipping narrating how the diver was responsible for saving 252 persons, passengers and crew of an Austrian vessel, from death.

During his career his most dangerous experience was due to a couple of too enthusiastic Arabs engaged for pumping. The Arabs pumped away with such zeal that the air pipe detached from the pump, but they kept on pumping without observing this. Fortunately for the diver down below, the chief officer of the expedition came along in the nick of time to see the air-pipe loose and have the diver brought to the surface. It was only after one hour's artificial respiration work that he was restored to life.

Texas Banker Is Fast Aground in Gulf of Mexico

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Jan. 30 (AP).—Surf and wind lashed the freighter Texas Banker, aground nine miles south of Arkansas Pass, today and tugs were prevented from refloating her.

In heavy fog, the Texas Banker, bound for New York with general cargo, drove high up on the beach yesterday. She was in no immediate danger today. The freighter carries a crew of twenty-seven men and officers.

Cariboo Gold to Increase Output

VANCOUVER, Jan. 30 (CP).—Additional machinery has been ordered to increase production at the Cariboo Gold Quartz, Ltd., Mine from 150 tons to 200 tons per day, R. R. Rose, managing director, announced today.

He said it is expected the increased tonnage will be passing through the enlarged plant by June.

SEAPLANE BASE IS DISCUSSED

Inner Harbor Location Out Of Question Until Regulations Are Changed

Until regulations governing the responsibility for collisions between ships and planes are changed, establishment of a seaplane base in Victoria's Inner Harbor is out of the question, Alderman Walter Luney, chairman of the executive of the public works committee, announced yesterday following a conference with Col. A. W. R. Wilby, agent for the Federal Department of Marine.

In respect to squatters on the waterfront, Col. Wilby asked the alderman to have the council write a letter to him pointing out unsanitary conditions.

Alderman Luney said he would seek to have a survey made of the squatters' dwellings to ascertain their sanitary conditions so as to provide Col. Wilby with necessary information.

SAYS CANADIANS CAN MAKE CHEDDAR CHEESE

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30 (C.P.)—Canada can make cheddar cheese that could replace the home-made product in the United Kingdom, Joseph Burgess, chief of the division of dairy produce, Ottawa, told the Manitoba Dairy Association here today. It is up to Canadian manufacturers, he said, to do so.

LIBRARY MEETING HELD AT SHAWNIGAN

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, Jan. 28.—In an effort to enlist greater local interest in the Shawnigan Lake Public Library, a public meeting was held in the library on Tuesday evening. Ways and means of putting the library on a firmer financial basis were discussed, and a drive for new subscribers was instituted among the members. Donations of books will be highly acceptable.

BOARD TO FILL OWN VACANCIES

Ladysmith School Trustees To Be Appointed—Juvenile Delinquency Growing

LADYSMITH, Jan. 30. — Before the new council began the regular business session last evening, a conference was held with members of the school board to enlist recommendations for the two vacancies on the board.

Two names were agreed upon, but the matter was finally referred back to the board for settlement. It was pointed out that much possible civic ambition was disqualified because of tax arrears. The board will fill the vacancies this week.

The council meeting opened with an invitation from the board of the General Hospital that the mayor and aldermen visit the hospital next Sunday afternoon to view the institution. The invitation was accepted.

From the school board an invitation was extended that the council visit the schools when Mr. Kyle, supervisor of technical training for the province, was making his inspection visit. The council will endeavor to attend.

TO CONDUCT RESEARCH

During the reading of committee reports, Alderman Joyce, chairman of the electric committee, intimated his committee would conduct an exhaustive research into all activities of his department. The future of the city-owned steam generating plant, now idle, would be considered, and all the angles of rates, revenue and service would be reviewed with the idea of rendering the most efficient and economical service to consumers. Industrial rates would receive particular attention, in the hope that levels could be offered inducing industry to locate here.

Seven pieces of property, in a price range from $5 to $200, were disposed of on tenders, to the comment that bargain sales were in order these days, to convert unproductive property into revenue-producing property.

Alderman Cullum, chairman of the finance committee, introduced a by-law providing for the prepayment of the 1936 taxes, and it proceeded to the committee stage. He also gave notice that he would introduce another by-law at the next meeting to deal with unemployment relief requirements.

The possibility of having new signs erected, particularly around First Avenue, naming the city streets in legible letters, was referred to the board of works for their recommendation and final action.

A SOURCE OF WORRY

Mischievous children of less than school age are a source of worry to the workers on the streets department, and infest the path of the power grader to their own great danger. Some of the aldermen were of the opinion that the driver of the grader should initiate some "spanking" reforms, where the lack of parental discipline was obvious, but meanwhile, an appeal will be made for parents to take the necessary steps.

This tendency towards juvenile delinquency is becoming noticeable in children of advanced school years, and complaints are rife that school youths insist upon infesting the streets about 9 o'clock in the evening when the north and southbound buses arrive. The curfew by-law, which has been allowed to lapse over a period of some years, will be again enforced, and the police authorities advised accordingly, when the by-law is reviewed at the next meeting.

Before adjournment, Alderman Joyce asked the council to consider the idea of having a sub-employment bureau locally, to save the confusion and waste of time occasioned by the futile search for employment at other points.

A man was leaving a hospital after a long illness, and was trying to express his gratitude to the nurse of the ward for her great kindness.

"I shall never forget what you have done for me," he said warmly. "You have been really wonderful, and I have thought many times that you must truly be a fallen angel."

Varied Scenes in Current Edition Of Talking News

THE Daily Colonist-Universal Newsreel, now at the Dominion Theatre, shows Charles Lindbergh and his family as they land in England, seeking safety and seclusion after repeated threats made against their youngest son. Riotous scenes from Havana as the presidential elections go forward give a clear idea of the excitable temper of that electorate, while in sharp contrast is the phlegmatic calm of the 3,000 Scots engaged in a huge curling match at Carsebreck, Scotland.

COBBLE HILL, Jan. 30.—The annual meeting of the Shawnigan and Cobble Hill Farmers' Institute was held at Cobble Hill, with the president, Lieutenant-Colonel F. T. Oldham, in the chair. GIVES LECTURE ON PSYCHOLOGY

DUNCAN, Jan. 30.—Prof. H. T. J. Coleman, head of the department of psychology at the University of British Columbia, addressed an interested audience at the K. of P. Hall last night under the adult education scheme. The subject of his address was "The Scope and Development of Psychology," and with this he combined a portion of his address on the evolutionary approach to psychology, which was to have been the subject of his lecture here next week.

This change was made at the request of his audience, who felt they would like to hear the professor speak next week on poetry, which he described as his avocation and as very near to his heart. Professor Coleman expressed himself in an easy, lucid manner, which left his audience feeling they wanted to hear more, and his lecture next Wednesday will be looked forward to with pleasure by all who heard him last night.

COOPER, BEERY IN BRLLIANT STORY

Famous Team Present "O'Shaughnessy's Boy" at Dominion Theatre—Circus Theme

At last, a circus picture that is all circus.

For the first time, the spirit of the circus with all its thrills, excitement and color has been brought to the screen. It is superb entertainment for every age.

Comedy, pathos, spectacle and a dramatically powerful story are deftly blended into a picture that wins new honors for its co-stars—Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper.

The picture is a fitting successor to "The Champ" and "Treasure Island," which so firmly established Beery and Cooper as one of the screen's greatest partnerships.

Richard Boleslawski's subtle touch and power of direction are evidenced throughout the picture, which gives Beery every opportunity to reach new dramatic heights as "Windy," a swaggering, easy-going animal trainer. Jackie, too, has one of his finest roles as "Stubby," Beery's son in the picture, and both give performances that will long stand as standards of excellence.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Capitol—"Stars Over Broadway," starring Pat O'Brien.

Columbia — Victor McLaglen, in "The Great Hotel Murder."

Dominion—Wallace Beery in "O'Shaughnessy's Boy."

Little Orpheum—George Arliss, in "Cardinal Richelieu."

Playhouse — "Two for Tonight," starring Bing Crosby.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Edmund Lowe is cast as a mystery story author forced to put theories into practice, and Victor McLaglen is a hotel detective, in their latest Fox Film mystery-comedy, "The Great Hotel Murder," now on view at the Columbia Theatre.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE Mack Gordon and Harry Revel wrote five songs for Bing Crosby's new Paramount comedy, "Two for Tonight" with Joan Bennet, Mary Boland and Lynne Overman, which is now showing on the screen of the Playhouse Theatre.

CAPITOL THEATRE Harry Warren and Al Dubin, ace song writers, have composed four new hits for "Stars Over Broadway," the new Warner Brothers musicomedy which is now at the Capitol Theatre. The songs include "You Let Me Down," a torch number; "Where Am I?" a ballad, and a character novelty, "At Your Service, Madame."

LITTLE ORPHEUM THEATRE "Cardinal Richelieu" starring George Arliss is now showing at the Little Orpheum Theatre. This tense drama centres around a great historic controversy depicting the stormy times of King Louis XIII of France when church and state were contending for power.

ROYALTY PLEASED AT CONCERT OF SINGERS

Sir Walford Davies, Master of the King's Music and one of the leading figures in the world of English music, paid a wonderful tribute recently to the Romilly Boys' Choir, of Barry, South Wales.

In thanking the choir on the occasion of its appearance at a command performance for Their Majesties, the late King George and Queen Mary, Sir Walford wrote in a letter to the conductor, M. W. Williams: "I want to convey to the choir the gratitude we all feel for their splendid work. The King and Queen were touched and greatly pleased by the singing."

The Romilly Boy Singers, now on a tour of Canada and the United States, will appear in the Empire Theatre for one day only, on Saturday, February 8, in matinee and evening performances. Patrons are urged to secure their reservations in advance to avoid disappointment in obtaining seats.

MAROONS WIDEN GAP BY NOSING OUT AMERICANS

Important Games Are Set in Scottish League Tomorrow

Leading Aberdeen Eleven Clashes With Third Lanark, and Celtic Will Meet the Hearts—Rangers Pitted Against Strong Motherwell Side—Sunderland Expected to Win

GLASGOW, Jan. 30 (CP). — Two-thirds of the schedule behind them, Scottish football teams start on the final three-month drive Saturday. The first six months have been tough, but followers of the national sport are expecting fireworks when the stretch is turned.

Aberdeen's drive to take the championship away from Glasgow, where it has rested for the past thirty years, with the exception of the 1931-23 season when Motherwell finished on top, has provided the highlight of the present campaign.

The Dons have their hopes set on dual honors— the league championship and the Scottish Cup—but they have been seriously threatened by the "old firm," Celtic and Rangers, in the past month and a half. All three teams survived the first round of the cup competition.

DONS ARE FAVORED

The leading Dons evidently regained their stride when they dropped Hamilton Academicals in the first round of the cup, 4-1, and playing at home against Third Lanark on Saturday are favored to defeat the Cathkin Club.

The cup-holding Glasgow Rangers are playing the stout-hearted Motherwell squad. The Fir Park representatives trail the champions by six points in the table, but the gap is hardly indicative of their respective strength.

Celtic, alone of the leaders away from home, plays Hearts at Tynecastle. Hearts' rating dwindled considerably when Third Lanark shunted them out of the cup with a 2-0 lacing in the initial.

The other end of the league standing is just as close, with four points separating the last five teams.

The two Second Division leaders, Falkirk and St. Mirren, are among the visiting squads. Falkirk will meet Cowdenbeath, but the Saints have an easier journey with King's Park.

ENGLISH LEAGUES

LONDON, Jan. 30 (CP).—Far ahead of the field in the race for the football league championship and unhampered by English Cup worries, Sunderland may widen the margin over its nearest rivals on Saturday.

The classy Roker Park squad entertains Chelsea, who will be at full strength, but the Londoners will have to display better form than usual if they are to capture the honors. Sunderland has a total of thirty-eight points, seven more than Derby County, runner-up, and eight more than Huddersfield Town, occupant of third place in the table.

The remodelled Aston Villa team meets Derby and will put up a stiff battle in view of its desperate plight at the bottom of the league. Bolton Wanderers, dour fighters on their own ground, are hosts to Huddersfield. Arsenal, at home to Stoke City, is relying on the same team that eliminated Liverpool from the cup competition last Saturday.

DONCASTER SLIPS

After a fine start in the Second Division, Doncaster Rovers have slipped in recent weeks and now occupy seventh place in the standing. This week the Rovers paid a substantial fee for the transfer of Sydney Lycroft, Grantham Town's rangy centre forward, and he will lead the team against Swansea Town in the Welsh city.

Charlton Athletic, the leader of the division, is at home to Plymouth Argyle and should retain its place. Leicester City slipped up into second place ahead of Sheffield United, Westham United and Tottenham Hotspurs by defeating Notts Forest in Nottingham today. At the week-end the city is at home to Blackpool.

Liddle, goal-scoring outside left of Coventry City, suffered a fractured ankle in the match with Brighton last Saturday. The City leader in the Southern Section of the Third Division, will be badly handicapped without the star winger when it entertains Queen's Park Rangers. Chesterfield and Tranmere Rovers are fighting neck and neck for honors in the Northern Section. The former plays at Crewe on Saturday, and the Rovers oppose Mansfield Town at Tranmere.

SMALLINSKI RETURNS FOR SEMI-WINDUP

Polish Wrestler to Meet Glen Stone Tomorrow Evening At Tillicum Gym

"Babe" Smallinski, likeable young grappler from Warsaw, Poland, who scored a popular victory over "Tiger" Joe Marsh, Chicago matman, in his last appearance at the Tillicum Gymnasium, was yesterday booked for the semi-windup bout on Saturday's mat card at the local palace de squirm.

Smallinski will be sent in against Glen Stone, shifty grappler from Olympia, Washington, and popular with Victoria mat followers. The boys will go five eight-minute rounds, or the best two out of three falls.

"Wee Willie" Davis, Norfolk, Va., wrestler, who stands six feet seven inches and weighs 260 pounds, will make his Victoria debut in the main event. Davis will match holds with the elusive and crafty Bob Kruse, Oswego, Oregon, squirmer. The bout is billed for eight ten-minute rounds.

STONE RETURNS

Glen Stone has made many appearances in the local ring, but in most cases he has been matched with men twenty and even thirty pounds heavier than himself. Tomorrow, when he climbs over the ropes to battle "Babe" Smallinski, he will meet a man close to his own weight. A former Pacific Coast champion, Stone should make things interesting for the likeable Smallinski.

George Hardy, former Toronto boy, now residing in the city, has been signed for the four five-minute round special event. Hardy will match his skill against George Lowe, flashy Chinese grappler, and if the Easterner lives up to advance information the Victoria boy is going to have a busy evening.

The first bout will commence at 8:45 o'clock.

Brentwood College Wins Hoop Fixture

Playing in their school gymnasium, Brentwood College cagers defeated West Saanich Road hoopsters, 36-23, in an exhibition basketball fixture.

The boys set a fast pace all of the way, and the game was keenly contested throughout.

The teams and scores follow:

Brentwood College — Kidd (15), Nation (15), Symons (6), Rhodes, Barrett-Lennard, Asselstine.

West Road—E. Butler (9), Clark (3), Gore-Langton (6), Staulake (2), Hardy (3), Butler.

"Where have you been for the last four years?"

"At college, taking medicine."

"And did you finally get well?"

Lynn Patrick Dumped by Seibert

Only a few days ago, Lester Patrick, of New York Rangers, traded defence stalwart Earl Seibert to Chicago Black Hawks and received in exchange the rights to Art Coulter, Hawk defender. Then Rangers had a hockey date with the same Hawks, and the two principals stepped on to the ice against each other. And Seibert at least was busy as you can see. Here he is seen tossing Lynn Patrick, the Ranger mentor's son, by a smart piece of stick-checking. Lynn is falling to the ice while Mike Karakas, sensational Hawk goalie, slides the rubber out of the danger zone. Seibert drew a penalty rest, but Hawks won, 1-0.

All players are asked to be at the ground not later than 10 o'clock.

HOCKEY SIDELIGHTS

(Copyright by Central Press Canadian)

BY RAY COLLETT

Among the great midgets of big league hockey must be placed the name of Larry Aurie, Detroit Red Wings' perennially brilliant forward, who registers his weight at not more than 150 pounds and stands five feet six inches high.

Detroit took up this puck-chaser in 1928, after he had spent a season or so with London in the old Canadian Professional League. The Motor City club has never relinquished their hold upon him, and each year his star burns as brightly as ever in the Red Wing firmament.

Aurie is not a particularly spectacular player but he is steady and reliable, and good hockey judges rate him high in ice genefalship. At 29, he still has plenty of time to do his stunts, and though not a peak-climber, you rarely hear of Aurie having a bad season. And his work is mighty valuable to Jack Adams' crew, who like speed, and plenty of it, in their pucksters. Aurie provides his share, plus a close back-checking game that can blanket his opposing wing.

He is a product of Northern Ontario hockey, hailing from Sudbury, in the mining belt. In the seasons 1931, 1932 and 1933 he registered exactly twelve goals each year.

INCREASE HOLD ON FIRST POSITION BY BEATING NEW YORK

Russ Blinco's Goal Gives Montrealers 3-2 Victory Before 10,000 Fans—Chicago Defeats Detroit To Take First Place—Canadiens Blank Leafs—Wilf Cude Turns in Fine Game

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (CP).— Twice coming from behind to tie the score, Montreal Maroons finally surged to the front in the final minutes tonight to defeat New York Americans, 3-2, and increase their hold on the first place in the Canadian group standing of the National Hockey League to three points. Defeat sent the Amerks to the cellar as Montreal Canadiens gained sole possession of the third place by turning back the second place Toronto Maple Leafs.

EARL ROBINSON

Some 10,000 fans saw the New Yorkers take the lead at the halfway mark in the first period when Nels Stewart scored on Art Chapman's pass, while Maroons were short two penalized men. Bob Gracie knotted the count less than four minutes later with the aid of Allan Shields.

The second period was dull and scoreless but action came in the first two minutes of the final session when Joe Jerwa's bullet-like shot from the left boards put the Americans in the van. The lead held until less than four minutes from the end when Hooley Smith tapped in a pass from Earl Robinson. The winning goal came from the stick of Russell Blinco on passes from Robinson and Dave Trottier.

FRENCHMEN BLANK LEAFS

MONTREAL, Jan. 30 (CP).—Bid of Toronto Maple Leafs for first place in the National Hockey League's Canadian Section broke on the brilliance of Slim Wilf Cude tonight as Canadiens protected him flawlessly to give the Welshman his fifth shutout victory of the season, 3-0. Six thousand fans saw the game.

The win enabled the Habitants to take undisputed possession of third place over the New York Americans and climb within two points of the second-place Leafs.

A penalty to Charlie Conacher paved the way for Canadiens' first goal in the second period. He was hardly off when shifty Pete Lepine blazed a short shot past George Hainsworth on a gang attack with Auriel Joliat and Johnny Gagnon getting assists.

Joffre Desilets, rookie right winger, made the play for the second goal when he feinted Hap Day out of position and gave Jack McGill a perfect set-up for a scoring shot just outside the goal crease with a forward pass.

Buzz Boll, speedy Leaf left winger, was injured in the second period. He collided with Art Lesieur, and was stunned when his head hit the ice. Two stitches were required to close a cut on the back of his head.

Leafs dominated the play throughout the final period, but Cude was at his best and Canadiens put on their best checking display seen here this season. Armand Mondou and McGill finally broke away from the Leafs' power play and Mondou scored the final goal from close in after taking McGill's pass to beat the lone defender.

CAPTURE ROUGH GAME

DETROIT, Jan. 30 (AP).—Chicago Black Hawks, behind the brilliant goal tending of Mike Karakas, beat Detroit Red Wings, 4-3, tonight in a rough game to take undisputed leadership in the American division of the National Hockey League. More than 10,000 saw the game.

Paul Thompson's goal in the third period decided the contest that sent the Hawks ahead of the Wings by a point in the standing.

With both clubs checking viciously, the game threatened to get out of control on several occasions, particularly in the final frame, when Aurie and Weibe drew majors for fighting.

Barry opened the scoring in the first period, with help from McDonald and Lewis. Trudell stole the puck inside the Detroit line, however, and tied it up. Romnes scored late in the period to put the Hawks in front.

In the second frame Howe scored on passes by Hec Kilrea and Goodfellow. In March, Lewis and Trudell were in the penalty box at the time.

March, on a fine pass from Romnes, tallied early in the final frame. About three minutes later Goodfellow tied the score in a scramble around the Hawk cage. Then Thompson, with March and Romnes getting assists, beat Smith cleanly from only a few feet out for the winning goal.

Referee Explains Why Rugby Game Ended Before Regular Time

THOUSANDS of Victorians who witnessed the New Zealand-Victoria Rugby match Wednesday afternoon at Macdonald Park were mighty surprised when Referee Levien blew the final whistle abruptly. As they wended their way out of the enclosure they were all talking about the short second half and the fine exhibition they had just witnessed. However, the arbiter came out in the open yesterday and explained his mistake of closing the period about twelve minutes before regular time. "I asked the touch judge to find out what the time was when one of the New Zealanders ran into me and stopped my watch. He did not know but he asked Charlie Morton, who went over and asked one of the reporters. He came back and said thirty minutes. I just added ten minutes on the time at that point. There was no object in me changing the time. It was merely a misunderstanding," he said in concluding.

CANZONERI IN EASY VICTORY

Lightweight Scores Three-Round Technical Kayo Over Toots Bashara

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30 (AP). — Tony Canzoneri, world's lightweight champion, stopped Toots Bashara, of Norfolk, Va., in three rounds, via the technical knockout route, in their scheduled ten-round fight tonight at the Olympia Club.

Referee Matt Adgie stopped the fight after having a physician examine Bashara's left eye, which was cut about midway through the round. The doctor said continuing the bout might result in serious injury to the eye, so the referee halted the proceedings.

Canzoneri weighed 139, a pound less than Bashara. A close-to-capacity crowd of 2,500 gave the little lightweight titleholder a great hand as he entered the ring. Canzoneri's title was not at stake.

Bashara was floored in the first round with a right uppercut. He came up at the count of nine, and the bell rang before Canzoneri could do any more damage.

RANKING STARS ADVANCE IN ISLAND BADMINTON

Easy Victories Feature of Play At the Armories

Favored Players Have Little Trouble Surviving Second Rounds of Annual Tournament—Grant Wins Easily—Doreen Swayne Eliminates Miss Young—Continues Today

Invading netters, with a few exceptions, swept to victory yesterday evening at the spacious Bay Street Armories as play in the annual Vancouver Island badminton championships, staged under the auspices of the Victoria Garrison Badminton Club, advanced to the third round.

While favored players found the going to their liking, upsets crept into the early play as the largest contingent of shuttle players battled for Vancouver Island crowns.

Miss Doreen Swayne, young home club netter, upset the dope in the women's singles when she eliminated Miss Eleanor Young, Vancouver player, in a three-set battle. The Victoria player, after dropping the initial set, came back to take the next two and the match.

SECOND DEFEAT

Miss Young tasted her second unexpected defeat later in the evening. Partnered with Lacey, another Mainlander, in the mixed doubles, the strong Vancouver player and her partner went down to defeat at the hands of Miss Mildred Philipsen and Don Davis, Victoria, in a bitterly-fought three-set battle. The Vancouver pair took the initial set, but lost the next two after some lengthy rallies and smart net play.

Douglas Grant, former Canadian champion, in his only court performance of the evening, stroked his way to an impressive and easy victory over J. White, local shuttler, 15-0, 15-1.

Play will resume this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the evening play scheduled to commence at 7:30 o'clock. A lengthy list of matches is scheduled and some good net play should be witnessed.

Rallying after losing the first set, Miss Doreen Swayne, Victoria Garrison Club, created one of the early upsets of the meet by defeating Miss Eleanor Young, Vancouver, 9-11, 11-8, 11-6. Opening with unsteady play, the young local star settled down after the first set and her game improved as the match progressed. The victory advanced Miss Swayne to the semi-final round in the lower bracket of the women's singles.

Miss Daphne Fernie, Kamloops star, advanced to the next round of the women's singles with a straight-set victory over Miss Gladys McCall, 11-6, 11-8. Miss Mary Fernie, a sister, also from the Interior city, defeated Miss P. Thwaites, 11-2, 11-0 in her only singles match of the evening.

George Lane, recently crowned city champion, continued his drive for the men's singles crown when he defeated E. T. Simmons, finalist in the city championship, 15-7, 15-8, while D. Bleasdale stroked his way to a straight-set victory over H Brown, Vancouver, 15-4, 15-4.

EASY VICTORY

Douglas Grant, Winnipeg, Manitoba titleholder and former Canadian champion, coasted to an easy victory over J. White, local player. The Manitoban allowed the Victorian one point in the two sets and won the match with scores of 15-0, 15-1.

In the three other men's singles matches extra sets were needed to decide the winners. "Tony" Pooley, Ashcroft player, was forced to an extra set before disposing of R. Hurdle, local player, 18-13, 15-17, 15-7. In another extra-set battle, A. Slocombe, Brentwood, defeated H. H. Shaw, Vancouver, 15-6, 8-15, 15-7, and O. Lacey, Mainland shuttler, went three sets before he eliminated P. Colclough, Willows, 8-15, 15-8, 15-9.

Straight-set victories featured the three men's doubles matches. Tony Pooley and Eric Leney, Duncan defending champions, eliminated Bagley and Davis, local pair, in a two-set match, 15-5, 15-8, while Flett and Dunbar defeated Brown and Shaw, Mainland combination, 15-7, 15-9. George Lane and Frank Tyrrell, city champions, stroked their way to victory over J. P. and R. A. Phillips, local players, 15-2, 15-11.

Two matches were played in the women's doubles, and both went to three sets. Misses Noni Woodward and P. Sluggett, former city champions, went down to defeat at the hands of Misses D. Morley and Miss G. McCall, 17-18, 15-7, 15-3, while Misses Murdoch and Gerrard were eliminated by Miss Radford and Miss MacDonald. The scores were 15-5, 12-15, 15-10.

In the first defence of their mixed open doubles crown, Miss U. Norrie and E. Leney, strong Duncan combination, defeated Mrs. Tomalin and Bill Dunbar, Victoria, 15-7, 15-4. The champions held the upper hand throughout and scored an impressive victory.

Miss Ethel Saunders and George Lane, runners-up in the recent city championships, advanced to the next round of the mixed doubles play with a straight-set victory over Miss P. Sluggett and R. Knott, 18-17, 15-10.

Miss Mildred Philipsen and Don Davis guided their way to victory over Miss Eleanor Young and Lacey, Vancouver doubles team, after a great match. The Mainlanders took the first set, 18-17, but the locals came back and won the second set by the same score. In the deciding set the local players played good badminton and ran out the game at 15-12.

SEATTLE, Jan. 30 (AP).—A golfing "gold trail" through the Pacific Northwest late this Summer is being considered by the Professional Golfers' Association, Jim Christie, assistant pro at the Inglewood Golf Club, reported today.

The tournaments probably would be staged during August and September, with the traveling pros swinging South later for the money events in California, Texas, Florida and the lower Atlantic coast.

Christie, back from California tournaments, reported at least fifteen upper bracket professionals would enter the various Northwest gold quests, should final arrangements with individual cities be completed.

Security Prices Lose Ground at New York Mart

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP).—Profit-takers took a whirl at today's stock market, and a number of recent favorites were pushed back for substantial losses.

The news was not especially depressing, and brokers, generally, attributed the realizing movement principally to technical influences, believing the list was due for a correction because of the sharp advance during the past several weeks.

There were a few resistant steels, oils, mines, specialties and low-priced utilities, and scattered strong spots developed throughout the session.

The activity picked up as cross-currents of buying and selling swept through the market. At times the ticker tape fell behind floor transactions. Transfers totaled 3,021,750 shares, as against 2,694,235 Wednesday. The Associated Press average of sixty stocks declined .4 of a point to 58.7.

The flow of earnings statements for 1935 were, on the whole, favorable. The Bethlehem report, disclosing the best fourth quarter's net income since 1929 and the best profits for any full year since 1930, came after the close of the market and more than confirmed earlier Wall Street estimates of the second largest steel corporation. Bethlehem common ended with a decline of ¾ of a point at 51¼, and the preferred was unchanged at 128¼.

With the exception of a few firm spots in the rail and foreign divisions, there was little change in bond market prices. Prices were too narrow to form a definite trend.

Wheat Drops Fractionally

Futures Continue Weak at Winnipeg—Values Lower At Liverpool

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30 (CP).—Unsettlement in the international market was reflected in lower prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, net losses of 3-8 to 5-8 cent being registered.

At Liverpool, futures prices were near the day's low points, May at 86 3-8, July, 87, and October, 85 1-4. Local futures followed the trend at Liverpool, which reacted to pressure of wheat from several continental countries, including Portugal, with 11,000,000 bushels for sale.

Declines of 5-8d in the English market encouraged scattered selling here, which proved too weighty to be absorbed by export sales of 400,000 bushels of Canadian wheat.

Prospects of a 299,000-bushel increase in Argentine wheat exports this week received scant attention from the trade. Cash grains were lifeless while coarse grains prices followed the trend in wheat.

Sees Grounds for Optimism

Insurance Company Head Warns Against Oppressive And Abnormal Taxation

TORONTO, Jan. 30.—"The new year brings fair promise for Canada," said Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Borden, president of the Crown Life Insurance Company, addressing the annual meeting here today. "We expect temporary recession from time to time but there is reasonable ground for sober optimism and for belief that our country is advancing gradually but steadily along the path to more normal conditions. Renewed confidence has been awakened and this in itself is no inconsiderable asset."

The revival of active business can best be assured by establishing such confidence in future development as will encourage a wider scope of business operations, said Sir Robert. Fear of oppressive and abnormal taxation must inevitably tend to retard revival of business activity. The success of refunding operations must chiefly depend upon the faith of foreign investors in the stability of Canada's credit and upon the certainty that Government obligations will be strictly honored.

DEMANDS CLOSE STUDY

Sir Robert reviewed the condition of Canada's national income and noted that while there had been a moderate increase in employment in Canada as elsewhere, unemployment would probably remain substantially higher than in the past. The problem of relief administration demanded, he declared, the closest study and the highest efficiency referring to the wastefulness that has been characteristic of all countries during the postwar period and commending the homely virtues of thrift and saving to the people of Canada and especially to all governmental authorities.

Sir Robert declared, "We cannot advance out of depression by wasteful and extravagant expenditure, excessive borrowing and high taxation. The recent arrangement for reduction of tariffs and wider trade between Canada and the United States, apart from any question of relative advantage, which remains to be determined by events, had given an inspiring lead which might be followed elsewhere."

THE TUTTS ... By Crawford Young

THE WORLD AT ITS WORST By CLUYAS WILLIAMS

Jane Dixon Says:

MAYBE THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES IS MORE DEADLY THAN THE MALE, BUT SHE'S NOT ANY MORE DAZED WHEN IT COMES TO SOLVING LOVE PROBLEMS

Boys seem to be able to get themselves into just as pretty a kettle of fish as do girls—and to find just as much trouble trying to wiggle their way out.

Maybe the female of the species is more deadly than the male, as the story goes, but she's not any more dazed when it comes to solving love problems.

Here's exhibit "A" to prove my case:

Jane Dixon: This is both comical and unusual, but, really, it's a mighty earnest matter with me, so please don't laugh and say, "Ridiculous!" before you hear me through.

Can a boy go with a girl for two years and then, successfully, switch his affections to her sister?

Two years ago my work took me a hundred odd miles away from home, where I met a girl, one year my senior. I'm twenty-three. I was attentive to this girl for six months, then I returned home, but we have corresponded regularly since.

NEVER DISCUSSED LOVE

Our friendship has been very pleasant and clean. Love has never been discussed between us. I made it quite clear that I could not consider marriage due to financial conditions and her reply was that she hoped we'd always be friends.

This girl is nice looking and, except for the fact she is extremely jealous, has a very sweet disposition. I've been back to see her on four occasions during my eighteen months away. She's from a good country family, early Anglo-Saxon stock. But—now that I'm in the proper line to observe her, I find her dull and uneducated and realised she would never be happy in my home town. Her parents and friends regard me as her steady beau. She goes with no one else. Her sisters look on me as more or less of a brother.

I don't think she is in love with me, but I'm even more certain that she has a terrible fear of becoming an old maid, as men in her community are scarce.

HIS AFFECTIONS VEERED

It was during my last visit to her home that I found her so boring, and learned, much to my surprise, that it was her younger sister who interested me. The sister is eighteen, a high school graduate, good looking and has enough personality and ambition to carry her anywhere she wants to go. I could care for her deeply, I'm sure, if given a chance.

I'm not the playboy type, and usually, I know what I want.

Can you tell me a way that I might——

1. Break off with the elder sister without hurting her feelings?

2. Without offending her parents?

3. Avoid gossip among the family friends?

Is this a hopeless case, or is it humanly possible to bring it to a happy solution?—"Confused."

Answer: Well, young man, you've given me a problem that Euclid and Aristotle might not answer. At least they'd have to go into a huddle over it.

It is humanly possible, of course, to find the happy solution, but the probability of being able to do so is pretty slender.

WOULD CREATE MUCH GOSSIP

Let's take inventory of what will happen once you show definitely that your interest in the sisters has veered from the elder to the younger.

And let's put all the cards on the table.

First, the elder sister, for whom you are the sole romantic interest, will be subjected to a terrific shock—a shock to her pride, to her sense of security, to her heart and to her mind—she'll feel she has been basely deceived by two persons in whom she placed her trust.

Second, the parents will lose faith in you. They'll judge you as unstable and unworthy. Parents like to see their senior children marry first.

Third, you could not stop the gossip of friends. They'll tear you apart, and the younger sister and you will be on the losing end.

Fourth, if I were you and loved the young sister so much that she is more important than all the resistance enumerated, I'd go to her, and if she loved me, too, I'd go to her parents and to the elder sister and tell them what happened.

It takes a he-man to do that job. Are you qualifying?

The visiting team was put out for 165 runs in the first innings, New South Wales making 325 and 281 for nine wickets declared.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Fish and Game Association Pass Several Important Items at Meeting

Several resolutions were passed at a special meeting of the Victoria Fish and Game Association held last night in the Foresters' Hall, most of which are interesting to the hunter and fishermen. Close to 100 attended and joined in debates concerning Vancouver Island's hunting and fishing grounds.

It was moved that hunters be allowed to bring down three-fork bucks or better during the deer season, which will be opened along with the grouse season, which means some time in September, with the closing date set at November 15. A resolution followed concerning the trout season, which will remain unchanged, but will include Shawnigan Lake this year.

The meeting thought that it would be a good idea to approach the Government to give metal containers with all fishing licences. The Government will also be asked to set aside public shooting grounds. Provincial officials will be approached about destroying all vermin and to raise the bounty on cougars throughout the south end of the Island.

Inspector Butler, of the Provincial Government, gave an interesting talk on bounties, various animals and numerous other topics which concerned the gathering.

TRAVEL HERE FROM EDMONTON TO SEE BIG RUGBY MATCH

Sport enthusiasts will endure many hardships and travel great distances to see their favorite games played. This motive brought Fred Chorley, W. G. Strachan and G. Higginbottam, prominent Edmonton businessmen, to Victoria on Wednesday to witness the battle between the All-Blacks and the Victoria All-Stars. They also saw the game in Vancouver and feel they were amply repaid for their 1,000-mile journey to the Coast.

Lifts Billiard Title

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP).—Youth, in the person of Edward Charles Rogers, of Glen Cove, N.Y., reigned over the amateur pocket billiard world today.

Rogers, only twenty-four years old and competing in his first major tournament, wrested the national championship from fifty-seven-year-old J. Howard Shoemaker, the defending champion, last night, by winning the deciding match of the title tourney, 125 to 42, in eighteen innings.

The victory gave Rogers a record of five games won and one lost in the tournament, while Shoemaker, seeking the title for the twenty-second time, won four out of six games.

The Hunter Lies in Wait for Lightfoot

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

If there was an angry hunter it was the one who had followed Lightfoot the Deer across the Big River. When he was ordered to get off the land where Lightfoot had climbed out he got back into his boat but he didn't row back to the other side. Instead he rowed down the Big River, finally landing on the same side but on land which Lightfoot's friend did not own.

When that deer has become rested he'll get uneasy," thought the hunter. "He won't stay on that man's land. He'll start for the nearest woods. I'll go up there and wait for him. I'll get that deer if only to spite that fellow back there who drove me off. Had it not been for him I'd have that deer right now. He was too tired to have gone far. He's got the handsomest pair of antlers I've seen for years. I can sell that head of his for a good price."

So the hunter tied his boat to a tree and once more got out. He climbed up the bank and studied the land. Across a wide meadow he could see a brushy old pasture and back of that some thick woods. He grinned. "That's where that deer will head for," he muttered. "There isn't any other place for him to go. All I've got to do is to be patient and wait."

So the hunter shouldered his terrible gun and tramped across the meadow to the brush-grown pasture. There he hid among the bushes where he could peep out and watch the land of Lightfoot's friend. He was still angry because he had not been allowed to shoot Lightfoot. But at the same time he chuckled because he thought himself very smart. Lightfoot couldn't possibly reach the shelter of the woods without giving him a shot and he hadn't the least doubt that Lightfoot would start for the wood just as soon as he felt able to travel. So he made himself comfortable and prepared to wait the rest of the day if necessary.

"That's where that deer will head for," he muttered.

Now Lightfoot's friend who had driven the hunter off had seen him row down the Big River and he had guessed just what was in that hunter's mind. "We'll fool him," said he chuckling to himself as he walked back toward the shed where poor Lightfoot was resting.

He did not go too near Lightfoot for he did not want to alarm him. He just kept within sight of Lightfoot, paying no attention to him but going about his work. You see, this man loved and understood the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows and he knew that there was no surer way of winning Lightfoot's confidence and trust than by appearing to take no notice of him. Lightfoot watching him understood. He knew that this man was a friend and would do him no harm. Little by little the wonderful blessed feeling of safety crept over Lightfoot. No hunter could harm him there. He knew.

Next story: Lightfoot Does the Wise Thing.

...harkness smoking a cigarette called ... Iris."

"Yes."

When she was close he took her in his arms and kissed her.

"I'm sorry, Iris. I didn't mean to be so brutal. I'm like that when I think I'm going to lose you. You said I didn't have any pride. No man can have any pride when he sees the girl he wants to marry being offered in marriage to the man who can pay the highest price for her. Can you blame me? You're the only person I have in the world, the only friend I have, Iris."

She drew away from him, took his hand and led him to the rustic bench.

"I'll never treat you like that again," he said. "I swear it, Iris. It's such hell to be so helpless."

"I know, Joel. I know. It isn't your fault. It isn't mine. We can't control circumstances. You let your temper and jealousy blind you."

"I'm going to make more money. I've got a plan."

"But it might jeopardize your position at the bank. I don't want you to do that." "We'll have to let time work these things out for us."

"If I had money and a little left over to help your family, would you marry me?"

She answered quickly. "Of course, I would, dear," and lowered her eyes as unwanted thoughts that ... her mind. Mark, why did I have to meet you and be shown ... you what Joel lacks? You make him seem so small and weak... in comparison with you. Mark, how dare you make me turn ... from Joel by bringing me with your money and charm and all the ... Joel has never had?

"I'll never embarrass or humiliate you again."

"... I've forgotten it."

"Do you remember the first Summer ... we used to walk here?"

"We didn't argue then," said ...

"We planned to be married. I ... to marry me then but ... If I'd ever lose ..."

"I had always come to you when ... me," she said, looking up ... drop of rain fell. "We've ... Joel. You didn't wear ... We'll have to run."

Water was dripping from the brim of his hat and soaking through his ... when they reached Clifton ...

"Get a cab ... and Iris."

"I ... enough money ..."

... a cab now.

... greeted her at the door. ... "Mr. North is on the telephone ..."

Mark's cheerful voice came back. "Hello darling. I can't keep up ... Mark has attached ... with such devotion. I'm ... a party Saturday night and Mark will call for you, and this time," Mary added laughing, "I ... accept the excuse of an automobile accident."

"You know I'll love to come."

... in her room ... came in breathless with ... She took Iris by the ... "I know I'll ... I can't fail!"

"What are you talking about, Eve?"

"... a New York ... is offering ... dollars for the pupil ... Oh, Iris, it ... I ... a chance in a ..."

"... all this going to happen ... And you haven't won it ..." said Iris smiling.

"... You must come ... and Tommy and Mother."

... shook her head. "Saturday ... Eve. I just promised ... I'd come to her party and I ... disappoint her again. But ... think of nothing else and as ... over and you've won ..."

When Eve went out she paused ... remembering what ... had said recently. "Fate prac... Eve's opportunity ... opportunity as ... Would success ... her responsibility?" ... her Mother and Tommy ... about still. Perhaps Joel ... ask her to marry him now ... Iris knew if he did she could ... him an answer. Wasn't she ... to close her mind to the truth that it was Mark whom she loved ... Joel whom she pitied and to ... she felt bound by promise ...

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

SLEEPINESS OFTEN A SIGN OF INFECTION

It is indeed fortunate that when infection attacks the body one of the first symptoms is a feeling of weariness and tiredness. The patient is usually ready and willing to rest. Thus it is found that an individual with infection in the teeth feels about as tired when he wakes as when he went to bed.

Sleep or complete rest often becomes necessary ... because the fighting forces of the body are using up their energy in fighting the infection and there is little strength left for the work of the day.

Thus any tendency to sleepiness in an individual who is usually alert should make the individual or the examining physician suspicious of infection.

On the other hand ... an individual does not get much sleep there is likely to be a tired feeling due to the fact that the fatigue products are in the blood long after they should have been removed from the body.

Recent research work shows that when work is done or exercise is taken the nerves and muscles which do this work give up certain products to the blood, and tiredness results.

When sufficient sleep is taken these same products are carried back to the nerves and muscles and remain there until more work is done or exercise taken.

It is only ... the nerves and muscles catch up again although two hours sleep, and complete rest and relaxation will keep the body alive.

Nearly all infectious diseases are associated with marked feeling of weariness that makes rest in bed absolutely necessary. Fatigue in weak or delicate individuals who are constantly worried about their health may be due to their mental condition. Worry which is chronic fear, produces weariness of mind and body.

Sleep, then, is an excellent restorative as it rids the body of fatigue products and allows the natural energy and strength to return to nerves and muscles. Where little or no work is done and the individual seems to need a great amount of sleep, infection should be sought.

Getting to bed immediately a cold or infection attacks means that less fatigue products will be manufactured and less of the body building substances will be drained from muscles and nerves.

Notice in a Florida paper: "Thursday I lost a gold watch I valued very highly. Immediately I inserted an advertisement in your lost-and-found column and waited. Yesterday I went home and found the watch in the pocket of another suit. God Bless Your Paper."

An amateur dramatic society in Australia was giving a show, an affair with royalty in it.

"Come," said the actor, who was playing the King, "let us go into the ouse."

There was a titter from the boxes. "He said 'ouse,'" an occupant remarked. The actor overhearing, turned to the offender. "Yes, I said 'ouse—do you think a King would live in hapartments?"

Veteran—Anyhow, there's one advantage in having a wooden leg.
